Every citizen of Liberal proclivities whether old or young-should examine the lists to-night, to-morrow (day or evening), or on Monday, and make sure that his name is on the lists. On each of these charges Cake was sentenced to eighteen months in the Central Prison, the terms to run concurrently. Boughton had pleaded guilty to breaking into a car on the Grand Trunk, and will spend two months in the county jail, where he will be kept breaking stones. Thos. A well attended meeting of the newly formed Children's Aid Society was held yesterday afternoon. It was announced that the letters of incorporation had been received from Toronto. The question of co-operating with the Humane Society was iscussed and action deferred until the anpointment of an officer, under the statutes, is determined. The police commissioners will be approached with a view to securing P. C. Morgan's services in that capacity. The ladies of Mount Hope Orphanage readily acceded to the request to throw open their doors as a temporary refuge, pending permanent arrangements. The Protestant Orphans' Home Board, of whom a similar favor was asked, will discuss the matter at a joint meeting to be held shortly, and it is probable will comply. The interest being taken in the work argues well for its suc-

Fifty Years a Voter, Yet Left Off the

"You are right in warning your friends to examine the city voters' list, to see if they and their neighbors have their names on," said that veteran citizen, bit.
Williams, of 354 Dundas street, to an ADsaid that veteran citizen, Mr. James living in London since the year 1826, and have been entitled to vote for over 50 years, yet, on examining the lists, I find that this year my name has been left off the lists as it was in the first election when Mr. Hyman ran. In 1887. I went to the polls, and the returning officer regarded it as a good joke when I told him I wanted to vote, and he looked up his lists and replied to me: 'You have no vote.' It was irritating for so old a citizen and property owner as myself to find that I had been disfranchised in this way, and I have been careful ever since to inspect the lists and see that my vote is protected. I have adopted the simple method required by the Ontario Manhood Franchise Act, and will have my name added to the list on Monday next.

MANITOBA'S SEPARATE SCHOOLS

The Catholics Will Appeal-D'Alton Mc-Carthy's Opinion.

OTTAWA, Feb. 23.-A message has been received from Mr. Ewart, Q.C., who represented the Roman Catholic minority of Manitoba when the school case was argued in the Supreme Court. That gentleman, who is at present in England, does not propose to let the matter rest. On the contrary, the minority will probably exercise their right of appeal to the judicial committee of the Privy Council. Mr. Ewart cabled to the Supreme Court asking that copies of the judge's opinions be sent to him in England by the first mail

D'ALTON M'CARTHY'S OPINION. TORONTO, Feb. 23.—Mr. D'Alton Mc-Carthy had little to say to a reporter who called upon him yesterday about the position of the Manitoba school question, in view of the decision of the Supreme Court, farther than to express the belief that there is a possibility, not to say probability, of the decision being reversed by the Privy Council. Though he does not pretend to anticipate the action of that august tribunal, he feels that the oracular utterances of Lord Watson during the argument of the case of belief that the confirmation of the view held by the Supreme Court is by no means a certainty. Mr. McCarthy believes that a reversal of the decision will be more embarrassing for Mr. Laurier than for Sir John Thompson, for the reason that it is not at all likely that the latter will be returned to power at the next election, and should the whole question be reopened it will be Mr. Laurier who will have to deal with it.

FOUGHT FOR LIFE.

Painters Struggle With a Madman on an Icy Roof.

Buffalo, Feb. 23 .- Albert Ammon, painter, while at work yesterday on the roof of a four-story building opposite the Iroquois Hotel, became suddenly insane. He was engaged in removing some large signs likely to be blown into the street by the high wind.

Frank Seltz and George Meyer, who were with him, first noticed his condition when he attempted to hurl a big iron part of the sign on the crowd below, who were watching the work. Then he turned toward them and struck a savage blow at Meyer with an iron bar.

The two men grappled with him, and an awful struggle ensued. The roof was covered with ice, and the three men slipped so near the edge that it seemed that all would be dashed to the street.

Finally the men managed to throw Ammon down, but even then his struggles were so violent that three times he dragged his captors to the edge of the roof.

Patrolman Flanagan made his way to the roof. The three could not quiet Ammon, and the policeman was obliged to use his club. Ammon was securely tied and lowered by means of ropes. He was taken to the Fitch Hospital, where he is still violent. Ammon was taken in the same way about a year ago while painting a chimney, and at that time seven men were required to hold him. It was believed he had entirely recovered.

SEEMED TO RISE FROM DEATH.

Mrs. Hosack's Body Had Been Partly Prepared for Burial. PERTH AMBOY, Feb. 22.-Mrs. Jane Hosack, aged 83 years, had been suffering for some time with a complication of ailments, principally disease of the heart. When her daughter, Mrs. Warren Herriott, went into the sick room on Sunday afternoon she was alive, but soon she became still and the pallor of death came upon her features. In a few minutes all evidences of life ceased, and the family made preparations for the funeral. As the undertaker was busy, he did not arrive until noon on Monday, when the body was partly prepared for the coffin. He was to return at 3 in the afternoon. While Mrs. Herroitt was busy in the death chamber, she discovered a twitching of the muscles in her mother's face. She could not move from the spot to call her husband on account of fear, though she says she tried hard to raise her voice. Finally one of the children happened to enter the room. The child saw that something was the matter with her mother. and, without noticing Mrs. Hosack, ran for her father.

When Mr. Harriott came in from the adjoining room he saw his wife in a dead faint on the floor and Mrs. Hosack sitting upright in bed. He could hardly believe his eves. Mrs. Hosack lived for three hours, muttering and gesticulating queerly. At 6:30 she died. The doctor who had been attending Mrs, Hosack took Mr. Harriott's word for it on Sunday evening that the woman was dead.
