The F. C. B. C. students had the second open meeting of their literary society last evening, when a programme of much merit was given in the assembly room. The college paper, College Echoes, was first read by the editor, Mr. N. George, and this was followed by a programme of music and recitations, besides a debate. The programme was: Mr. R. Watson, vocal solo; Miss Bryden, recitation; Miss J. McLean, instrumental solo; Mr. Bricklan, vocal solo; Miss Backus, recitation; Mr. Crouch, instrumental solo. The debate was on the subject that "city life is preferable to country life," the affirmative of which was taken by Messrs. Talbot and Farr, and the negative by Messrs. Lipsett and Walker. The decision went to the negative. Miss Johnson was the critic of the evening, and after her remarks at the close of the programme the evening was brought to a conclusion by a few words from the principal and the singing of the National Anthem.

MARRIED IN WESTMINSTER. Miss Ethel M. Wyatt, a former kindergarten teacher of this city, and Mr. Levert J. Nichols, of Westminster, were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. Thomas Teeple, Glendale. Here the place had been decorated, a bower of evergreens having been erected, where, under a horseshoe of carnations, the happy couple were united by Rev. Mr. Irwin, of Lambeth. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. George Wyatt, of this city. The guests were confined to the immediate relatives and these were served the wedding breakfast at the close of the ceremony and then Mr. and Mrs. Nichols started points. On their return they will be at home to their friends, after the 15th of next month.

Of Catarrh' remedies, there is no end, but of catarrh cures, there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure.

very little, if any, better than the oldfashioned salt water douche.

The use of inhalers and the application of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is back to cure kidney disease. Catarrh a beautiful Southern drama, with a is just as much a blood disease as kidney trouble or rheumatism, and it cannot be cured by local treatment any more than they can be.

To cure catarrh, whether in the throat or stomach, an internal antiseptic treatment is necessary drive the catarrhal poison out of the blood and system, and the new catarrh cure is designed on this plan, and the remarkable success of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because, being used nternally, it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomacn, iver and bowels.

William Zimmerman, of St. Joseph, elates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of catarrh sufferers everywhere. He says: neglected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes, and finally even stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me, and then I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position, as I was a clerk, and my hearing was absolutely

Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, another a catarrh salve, but they were no good in my case, nor was anything else until I heard of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and bought a package at my drug store. They benefited me from the start, and in less than four months I was combenefited me from the start, and in less than four months I was completely cured of catarrh, although I had suffered nearly all my life from

The one last evening was given at the Normal School, where all the course will be given, and the meeting was presided over by Principal Waller, of the Western University. The lecturer, as mentioned above, was Principal Hutton, and an excellent lecturer he proved to be. He presented his material in a very attractive as well as an instructive manner. The charges of inaccuracy so often brought against Herodotus were referred to and defended, the lecturer holding that Thucydides did not give a true picture of life in ancient Greece as Herodotus did. Herodotus had a broad and sympathetic view of humanity, and was a better historian than his great contemporary. Herodotus was cynical; he was witty, and in regard to this latter quality the lecturer dwelt at some length, illustrating by passages from the writings of the great Greek.
