FAIR TO RAILWAYS Tributes of Shaughnessy and Waine wright to Judge Mabee.

Montreal, Que., May 7 .- Sir Thomas Shaughnessy said today: "Canada has met with a serious loss in the death of Judge Mabee. Hig legal attainments, his experience on the bench, his analytical mind, and his firmness, fitted him peculiarly for the onerous duties of his most important office. While on occasions the railway companies felt aggrieved by the severity of his findings, there can be no doubt that he was actuated by a keen sense of justice and duty and that as a rule his judgments were fair to everybody concerned.

"The news of Judge Mabee's sudder and untimely death has come as a great shock and a grief to me," said Mr. William Wainwright, acting president of the Grand Trunk. "Judge Mabee and I had been warm friends for years, and it is a real personal sorrow for me to hear of his death. "I had a very high opinion of Judge Mabee. He was a man of great capacity and judicial temperament, exact-ly suited to his position as chairman of the railway commission.
