Portugal Sends 4.000 More Men To West Africa

War On German Colonies.

LISBON, Portugal, Nov. 20 (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The Government is preparing to send 4,000 more troops to Angola, and another 500 marines are being fitted out for departure this

It appears that Germany has armed great numbers of Portuguese African natives, which are commanded by German officers, and provided with artillery. The pre-vailing view in Portugal appears to be that the most useful part Portu-gal can take in the great war is in the Portuguese African colonies, and in aiding the British to carry the war into the German colonies, which are contiguous to the Portuguese.
