By diagram and verbal explana-tion Mr. Anderson showed the sub-conscious mind controls the entire physical function of the body. More that that, it is the dictator of destiny, the one and only source of inspiration and accomplishment.

conscious mind are comparatively neglible in their effects on life's conduct. It is the subconscious mind around which the future of human action revolves.

The subconscious accepts every impression as being true, while the conscious is controlled by a critical faculty or censorship which prevents from accepting certain reflections s truth unless they appeal to logic. Habit is supervised exclusively by the ubconscious, and it is habit in living, hinking and acting that governs uman conduct.

After hearing his address one could not reasonably question the school the following received books as prizes: Olive Davis, Verdun Coups, Hilda Avey, P. Fiddler, Joe benefits of autosuggestion

As Mr. Morris himself said, it is impossible to explain or demonstrate the science in a book or by newspaper articles. The only practicable method is by lecturing and instilling audiences with belief and faith. He particularly emphasized the necessity for faith in Coue's philosophy, and stated that those who departed with the firm resolve to practice autosuggestion religiously would
