A LBASE OF PROVINCIAL RIGHTS. The Ottawa correspondent of the Mou-treal Witness gave us a nice tit-bit of gratuitous assumption recently. Referring to the debate in the house on the Chine question, he stated the ground taken by Shakespeare and Mr. Baker respec tively, who are representatives of the Pacific province. Immediately upon this he added that the interests of the dominion as a whole, were championed by Mr. Gil-mor, of Charlotte, N.B., who strongly favored Chinese immigration. We fail to see any logical coherence in this. Why should it be the interest of the dominion, as a whole, to force the Chinese immigra tion upon the people of British Columbia against their will. It is abundantly evident that, in demanding that it be stopped, or at least greatly restricted, the representatives of that province do honestly and truly speak the desire of their constituents In what way can it fairly be said that it is for the interest of the dominion, as whole, to force the Chinese upon the people of British Columbia, whether they will or

This appears to be a case of provincial rights. If the dominion government can force the people of British Columbia to submit, however sorely against their will, to the infliction of the Chinese plague, it may well province is to become Chinese Columbia is there than the rivers and streams bill, or even the question of liquor license control, are in the house of commons representatives of Ontario's rights. Will they help the few entatives of British Columbia to obtain the boon which the people of that province so ardently desire, or will they say that the interests of the dominion failed? We wait to see.

REHIND THE CLOCK.

The Montreal Witness is behind the time as shown by a good clock. Last week it had a tearful article lamenting the fact that the national policy, instead of cutting down our imports and with them cur indebtedness abroad, seemed actually to be increas. ing them and making the matter worse. Of course our contemporary's remarks on this point have no meaning at all, except on other election, in which their chances of the supposition that an adverse balance of success are good, the conservatives, so the bad for the country. Meantime the production of goods buried in the senate, etc. in Canada, has been increasing, and they and at last that they have about reached the end of their tether in trying to force upon this country more of their goods than it really wanted. Now, by decree of the fates, or of the banks, it is settled that im- 3 there is a letter from a Mr. Pringle who, portation must be cut down, and the Witness gets overwhelmed in view of over impertation at the very time when it is being knowledge. As your correspondent is in pretty effectually stopped. In other words, ennest about obtaining information, allow our contemporary is behind the clock.

American lard, or some of it, exported to Cuba is not the pure article, but a patent Certain brands of it have recently been excluded by the Cuban authorities, and, referring to this, a lard refiner gives the following information to a New York paper : "The grades mentioned are those of western packers, and the action of the Cuban government is a periodical one, when the markets get overstocked with the adulterated article. It is in nowise 'refined' lard, but is what is called in the trade the 'Havana mixture.' There is probably not sufficient lard in the mixture for it to be called lard, unless the combination of common hog grease and cotton-seed oil gives it a right to that title. I should judge from the title of one of the brands that Rosedale cement is used to stiffen it up, when five per cent of water or cottonseed oil is used. The mixture sells from one to two cents a pound cheaper than refined lard, and is in great demand in Cuba, because anything is thought good enough for the negroes. The same kind of article is sold in Vesey and Fulton streets." Is it sold in Canada too, we wonder?

Dr. Baynes of Winnipeg, Man., is in trustees. The city will be compelled to England endeavoring to float a Canadian provide thirty thousand dollars a year loan and mortgage company. He complains that he finds considerable difficulty in doing business with English capitalists owing to the disparaging reports of Winnipeg and the Northwest published in Ontario and Quebec papers. He also states that he met two Canadian senators in Glasgow last fall, and he found them belittling the Northwest in every possible form. We can well understand the doctor's position, but writing in general terms will not better it. He should say who the senators are that he accuses of want of patriotism and last fall, and he found them belittling the the citizens to confer such power on the li what statements they and the papers made.

the property belonged to his wife? Neither Mr. Paruell nor any other memer of parliament, will be present at the frish convention in Philadelphia. The deision is doubtless a wise one, for there seems every probability that resolutions will be passed at the convention to saddle the responsibility for which, to say the least of it, might prove inconvenient for the dictator and his friends.

While denying the truth of the report hat letters were found on a prisoner reently taken to Ireland compromising him, O'Donovan Rossa evidently feels proud that his preachings are having their effect. He be asked what rights any province has that declares that if Ireland's independence is the dominion is bound to respect. To our not granted every public building in Engview the question whether the Pacific 12nd will be blown up, and to show that blood-thirsty country the might he holds in of immensely more importance to people his hands he offers to give an exhibition mistie of New York of the powers of dynamite or nitro-glycerine. He says if is to the people of Ontario. Now, there allowed to give the exhibition he will guarantee the results will be such as to compel of this province who are sworn champions Great Britain to loosen her hold on the derald isle. Rossa's bare guarantee will not be sufficient for the acceptance of such a statement, but the display would surely beenough to convince the United States government that it was about time i tepped in and put a stop to the open carry ng on of a diabolical system of warfare within its territory against a friendly nation However, we must admire Rossa's pluck in keeping out of harm's way while making victims for British bastiles.

To the Editor of The World.

SIR: In The World of Tuesday April while he appears to be advocating a certain kind of truth, yet is evidently lacking in me to give him with all kindly feeling, a few bints as to how some of his difficulties may be removed. He says "science has discovered mind in connection with a living brain." This is a most serious mistake, as inductive science has utterly failed to prove the existence of anything but nervous matter and feeling, and while there is a connection between feeling and mind, not even inductive science can explain. Again, Mr. Pringle says science has failed to find the existence of mind or soul in the bible sense. Your correspondent should have said "inductive science;" becouse if he will be at the trouble to read deductive science, treating of the human deductive science, treating of the human understanding, as it is given by Kant and Hogel, he will think quite differently. Besides, if Mr. Pringle will be at the farther trouble of reading J. S. Mill's "Methods of Induction," he will find that even it science does fail to discover the existence of mind, according to the bible sense, still he is not warranted in saying that the bible makes a mistake. makes a mistake.

Hoping that Mr. Pringle will acquire ductive information, and habit of thinking for himself before he writes much more, SENSUS ET MENS.
