Official News From the Foreign Society.

The Executive Committee met in regular session in the Y. M. C. A. building, Cincinnati, Ohio, March 16, 1894. Devotional exercises were conducted by President Loos.

FINANCES.—The receipts for the month amounted to $9,010.54, the disbursements to $5,527.82. In response to an appeal from G. L. Wharton, $1,000 was appropriated towards a bungalow in Hurda, India. The need is most urgent. He and his family are living in a tent. When the hot season comes they must seek quarters elsewhere. There is no building in Hurda which they can rent. There is only one thing to do, namely, to build. The money will be sent on as soon as it can be spared.—Dr. A. W. Hunt asked for $250 for medicines. Patients come to him from far and near. One man came 800 miles for treatment. For some of them he can do nothing simply because he has no medicines. He was authorized to draw at once for part of this sum and for the rest a little later. The committee feels that the first thing to do is to pay the workers what is coming to them. Some special claims must be met. They are of such a nature that they cannot be postponed. The other claims must wait.

NOTE FROM THE FIELD.—China.—T. J. Arnold writes: "I have just returned from a trip to Wu Wei Cheo and the surrounding district. The people received us gladly. We sold 1,300 calendars, and 300 tracts and gospels combined. We met several intelligent and earnest enquirers, and did a good deal of preaching on the street."—W. P. Bentley writes that he has been elected general secretary of the Endeavor work in China. There are some thousands of members of this society in China already. The work of this office does not take much time, and he feels that the time taken is well spent.—J. Coop, Southport, England, writes that he has sent £80 to James Ware for a boat. It will be a present from the Sunday schools of England, the boat to be the property of the Foreign Society.

Turkey.—G. S. Shishmanian writes: "Yesterday the good Lord added one precious soul to the saved. He is a Greek, and lives in Djerah, near Brousa. He is here on a short visit, and in a few days will return to his family. He is a well-informed man of about fifty-nine years of age, and tolerably well-to-do. He says that there are several others in the town who wish to obey the gospel."

India.—G. L. Wharton writes as follows: "The Bible and training school is doing good work. Seven young men are taking the course of study and are manifesting a good spirit. Our recitation room is in the school chapel built by our Australian brethren. We have daily preaching in the bazar and town by the students and myself. We are hopeful and united in our desire to save souls."—W. C. Cooper, writing of an evangelistic tour, says: "The headman and villagers of Ghanagt treated us most kindly and furnished us freely with what little they had at their disposal. Occasionally we ran short, but beyond a little inconvenience it was of no consequence. The farmer with whom we lodged last year has sent us another pressing invitation to spend a few days at his abode."—Dr. A. W. Hunt, writes: "The more I see of these people the more interesting the work becomes. I have but one thing to regret in connection with the work, and that is, that I did not come several years earlier. I like the work and trust that God will spare me many years and give me strength to do the work as it should be done."

THE SPIRIT OF THE WORKERS.—In the hard times the workers have been disposed to make the best of the situation. The work has been crippled more or less. They regretted that they had been obliged to economize at every point. But they rejoiced that they were counted worthy to suffer for Christ's sake. Such workers are deserving of all possible support, encouragement and consideration. The Christian people of America ought to supply their representatives in the heathen field with the facilities necessary to carry on their work most effectively. They need homes, that their lives may be prolonged and their health preserved. They need chapels and schools and funds with which to employ native helpers.

The responses to the calls for offerings in the churches for world-wide evangelism are cheering. Many new churches are responding. Many are doing better than they did last year. Some are giving less. If all, or even half, would give as they are abundantly able, there would be enough to supply the present workers and to send out as many more as are needed. If the spirit that filled the workers filled the churches, there would be no lack of funds; on the contrary the treasury would be full and overflowing.

A Miracle of To-day.

THE STARTLING EXPERIENCE OF A YOUNG LADY IN ST. THOMAS.

A Constant Sufferer for More than Five Years—Her Blood had turned to Water—Physicians held out no Hope of Her Recovery—How Her Life was Saved—A Wonderful Story.

From the St. Thomas Journal.

"The Angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him, and delivereth them." Such is a verse of holy writ made familiar to very many residents of St. Thomas by the well-known evangelist, Rev. J. E. Hunter. In letters of gold, on the stained glass fanlight over the door of his residence, No. 113 Wellington St., is the text, "Psalm xxxiv, 7." Though we live in an age noted for its energetic, zealous Christian endeavor, this idea of Mr. Hunter's to impress the truths of the Scriptures upon those who read though they run, is altogether so original and so novel that it at once excites the curiosity. Those not familiar with the text make a mental note of it, and at the first opportunity look it up. This is just what was done by a representative of the Journal, who had occasion to visit Mr. Hunter's residence the other day. But with the object of the visit and the information obtained the reader will be more concerned. The reporter was assigned to investigate a marvellous cure said to have been effected in the case of a young lady employed in Mr. Hunter's family by that well-known and popular remedy, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. And it was a wonderful story that the young lady had to tell, and is undoubtedly as true as it is wonderful. Last June, the same reporter interviewed Mrs. John Cupe, wife of the tollgate-keeper on the London and Port Stanley road, who had been cured by Pink Pills of running ulcers on the limbs after years of suffering, and after having been given up by a number of physicians. The old lady had entirely recovered, and could not say too much in praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which had given her a new lease of life. As it was with Mrs. Cupe, so it was with Miss Edna Harris, the young lady in the employ of Mr. Hunter's family who had been restored to health and strength by Pink Pills. Miss Harris has just passed her twentieth year, and is a daughter of George Harris, who lives at Yarmouth Heights, and is employed by Mr. Geo. Boucher, florist and plantsman.

"I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life, and I am quite willing that everyone should know it," was the reply of Miss Harris when asked if she had been benefited by Pink Pills, and if so would she make public her story. Continuing, she said, "When I was twelve or thirteen years of age I was first taken sick. The doctors said my blood had all turned to water. For five years I suffered terribly, and was so weak that I could barely keep alive. It was only grit and strong will, the doctor said, that kept me alive at all. If I tried to stand for a short time, or if I got the least bit warm I would fall over in a faint. My eyes were white and glassy, and I was so thin and pallid that every one believed that I was dying of consumption. During the five years I was ill, I was attended by five physicians in St. Thomas, two in Detroit, one in London and one in Alymer, and none of them could do anything for me. I was so far gone that they had no hopes of my recovery. Towards the last, my feet and limbs swelled so that they had to be bandaged to keep them from bursting. They were bandaged for three months, and my whole body was swollen and bloated, and the doctors said there was not a pint of blood in my body, and they held out no hopes whatever. Two years ago I saw in the Journal about a man in Hamilton being cured by taking Pink Pills. I thought if they could cure him they would help me, and I decided to try them. Before I had finished three boxes I felt relieved; the swelling went down and the bandages were removed. I continued taking Pink Pills until I had taken seven boxes, then irregularly I took three more, one of which Mr. Hunter brought back from Brockville. I am perfectly cured. I have not been ill a single day since I finished the seventh box of pills. I came to Mrs. Hunter's a year ago and she will tell you I have never been ill a day since coming here, and I always feel strong and able to do the work. I can and do strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills," said Miss Harris in conclusion. Her appearance is certainly that of a strong, healthy young woman.

Mrs. J. E. Hunter, wife of the evangelist, told the reporter that Miss Harris was a good, reliable truthful girl, and that perfect reliance could be placed in her statements. "She looks like a different girl from what she was when she came here a year ago," said Mrs. Hunter.

The facts above related are important to parents, as there are many young girls just budding into womanhood whose condition is, to say the least, more critical than they imagine. Their complexion is pale and waxy in appearance, troubled with heart palpitation, headaches, shortness of breath on the slightest exercise, faintness and other distressing symptoms which invariably lead to a premature grave unless prompt steps are taken to bring about a natural condition of health. In this emergency no remedy yet discovered can supply the place of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which build anew the blood, strengthen the nerves and restoring the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. They are certain cure for all troubles peculiar to the female system, young or old. Pink Pills also cure such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration, the after effects of la grippe, influenza and severe colds, diseases depending on humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, over work, or excesses of any nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y., at fifty cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

Exact justice is commonly more merciful in the long run than pity, for it tends to foster in men those stronger qualities which make them good citizens.—LOWELL.
