

CHICAGO MARKET.

DULLNESS, WITH A TENDENCY BY LOCAL BEARS TO SELL, CAUSES A LOWER MARKET.

Chicago, March 1.

Wheat opened steady, on the advance in Cables, and cold weather in the North-West. Pit traders, however, were not inclined to buy on the weather reports, and the market sagged off to below last night's closing prices.

Corn also was not nearly as buoyant as it has been for the last day or so, and provisions were less active on a decline of 10c. The news, although in general bearish, was offset by a slight improvement in cash demand.

The shipment of nearly a million bushels from Australia confirms earlier predictions that the European demand will be supplied from other sources than American.

Foreign absorption continues good, and sufficiently large to uphold the price of spot wheat, but the dullness in the May delivery indicates the confidence of traders for bountiful supplies after the immediate demand is filled up.

Russian wheat continues again to be under-estimated, since July 1st last they aggregated 44,168,000 bushels, against 77,797,000 bushels for the corresponding period a year ago, leaving a deficit of 33,629,000 bushels.

Bradstreet's Visible Supply.—Wheat increases 291,000; corn increases 736,000; oat increases, 279,000; wheat east of the Rockies, decrease 109,000 bushels.
