Dear Land Ayont the Sea—

BY JOHN IMEIR, TORONTO, CANADA.
I STAND upon a foreign shore
And gaze across the sea,
Fond memories bridge the waters o'er,
Sweet home-thoughts come to me;
Once more I see the bonnie hills,
Feel glad some, young and free,
My heart with loyal rapture thrills—
Dear land ayont the sea.

I see once more the gowans fair,
And scent the hawthorn bloom,
I feel the pure sweet mountain air
Blow fresh from heather bloom;
I hear glad voices as of yore
Sing songs of love to me,
Oh! shall I ever see thee more,
Dear land ayont the sea!

May Heaven grant me this request
Before the day I die,
To see the land I love the best,
My birthplace o'er the sea;
And oh! methinks I would be blest,
When soars my spirit free,
To know my body yet would rest
At home ayont the sea.

JOHN IMEIR'S POEMS, containing about 400 poems, neatly bound in cloth and gold, will be sent, post free, on receipt of one dollar. IMEIR, GRAHAM & Co., 31 Church St., Toronto, Canada. Only a few copies left.

For a long time I suffered with Rheumatism in the back so severely that I could not even sit straight. My wife advised a Dr. Healed Plaster. I tried it and was soon going about all right.

Bicycles at $50:

Not as many as we would like, but all we could get at the price. Same make and grade as the Eatonias we've sold all season at $60. But the manufacturer is more lenient now that the rush is over and you get the benefit in the lowest price ever quoted for a strictly high-grade wheel.

We give you fair warning—the lot is small and can't possibly last long. You'll find the Eatonia Bicycle equal in every respect to the most expensive makes.
