Business at Vancouver.

Vancouver, Feb. 4, 1901.

There have been several days of magnificent weather this week, and in consequence weather this week, and in consequence of people. Prices remain market was attended by an unusually large number of people. Prices remain with the exception of eggs which have dropped to 30 to 35-a cases, but the exception of eggs which have dropped to 30 to 35-a cases. The prices are more plentful. The trade in poultry was lively and there was a brisk desired at an advanced price. Business was entirely suspended on He occasion of the memorial day observances so that Seturday's trade was crowded into Friday, and there was an much business done on Friday sand there was an much business done on Friday sight as on Christmas Eve.

Of the 145 Scottish miners originally imported from Glasgow by James Dassmuir, for his coal mines, but 25 remain, some of them have returned to Scottand. They have left Vancouris Island because they object to the povaling conditions in the mines, which are different from what they shad anticipated.

The principal proof of the ship's loss is the fact that the cares washed ashore bere the labels of the Amoouver Packing Company ever labelled, and the ship company ever labelled, and the ship company this season. Further, the cases were packed first in the hold, so that they could not have been thrown out to lighten the steamer. The fallers of Oppenheimer Brog. has been received with general repret her, as they were one of the most entirpising firms on the coast, and the pleaser wholesale firm of Vancouver. The scalor partner, the late David Openheimer, being Vancouver second mayor. The liabilities are said to & $2,200; sasets at this writing unknown. Eastern Canadian and American firms alone suffer.
