

(कन कृष्णं त्रैलोक्यं सर्वत्रिभुवनं
 आशुभं धनं चक्रं साधुं च
 अथ चक्रं चक्रं चक्रं चक्रं
 अथ चक्रं चक्रं चक्रं चक्रं

As a specimen of Hindoo writing, Ruth's letter is very curious, being neatly written. Mr. Paton, desires us to say that he will gladly send it to any one desirous of having a sight of it, but as it would thus reach but a few parties, we have had the foregoing woodcut prepared, which exactly reproduces a portion of it. The characters are, as will be seen, very neatly formed. The receipt of such a letter, is a very interesting event in the history of our Canadian schools.
