Mercantile Summary.

WE BELIEVE that the Ontario Government have instituted enquiries with a view to establishing one or more inebriate asylums in this Province.

It is asserted that the harvest in France this year will be the most abundant known for a long time. A total grain yield of 96,225,000 bush is estimated, being 25 to 30 per cent over the average of ten years.

Mr. Tarbox, the late resident partner of the firm of Messrs. Wanzer & Co., of Hamilton, sewing machine manufacturers, has retired from the firm, and has associated himself with other gentlemen for the purpose of carrying on the lumber trade.

CUBA is expected to give an increased yield of sugar this year, exceeding by 22 per cent that of last year. The Havana correspondent of a New York journal places the total yield at 1,793,800 boxes, 527,600 hhds of sugar and 292,500 hhds of molasses.

A Mr. Dodds, carrying on a woolen business was at time believed to be in a fair working condition, and he was supposed to have suffi-
