

Public Health

In the realm of public health, cobalt beam therapy units for the treatment of cancer have been supplied to ten hospitals in Burma and India, and medical books to a total value of $220,000 have been made available to 88 medical schools in Colombo Plan countries.

A Canadian nurse teaching at the Patna Medical College Hospital in Patna, India.

National Film Board

SUMMARY—These are just a few of the capital assistance projects undertaken by Canada in cooperation with other member countries of the Colombo Plan.