

III	INTERPRETATION OF THE CANADIAN CONSTITUTION CONCERNING POSSIBLE PROVINCIAL TREATY-MAKING POWERS	29
	Background	29
	External Prerogatives and Canada as an Independent State	30
	The Devolution of the Foreign Affairs Prerogative	32
	The Provinces and the Foreign Affairs Prerogative	34
	The Federal Power of Disallowance	36
	Some Provincial Comments	37
	Canadian Constitution and Conduct of Foreign Powers	38
	Conclusions	40
IV	PROVINCIAL PRACTICE IN CANADA IN RESPECT TO TREATY-MAKING	42
	Introduction	42
	(a) Examples of purported agreements between the provinces and foreign entities	43
	1. British Columbia	43
	(a) Tourist Advertising Agreement	43
	(b) Civil Defence Agreement	43
	(c) Skagit Agreement	43
	(d) Supply of Power Arrangements	44
	(e) Maintenance Orders Agreements	44
	(f) Agreements Relating to Taxation of Motor Fuels	44
	2. Manitoba	44
	(a) North Dakota Drainage Agreement	44
	(b) Manitoba-Minnesota Highway Agreement	45
	3. Nova Scotia	45
	(a) Lands Settlement Board Agreement	45
	4. Ontario	46
	(a) Lake Erie Fisheries Agreement	46
	(b) Port Huron-Sarnia Bridge Agreement	46
	(c) Michigan International Bridge Authority Agreement	47
	(d) Maintenance Orders Agreements	47
	(e) Driving Privileges Agreements	47
	(b) Agreements into which the provinces were not competent to enter, in the view of the federal authorities	48
	1. Northeast Inter-state Forest Fire Compact	48
	2. Civil Defence Compacts	48
	3. Great Lakes Basin Compact	49