

OGELSBY, J.C.M.

Gringos from the Far North (Toronto: Macmillan Co. of Canada Ltd., 1976.) This book comprises essays on various aspects of the history of Canada's relations with Latin America, and, as an appendix, "The Extent, Focus and Changes of Canadian Public Interest in Latin America, 1957-1967", of which the present study is a sequel.

"Canada-Latin American Relations: The Past, Present and Future", unpublished paper presented at CALAS-El Colegio meeting, Mexico City, May 1971. Available in library of Canadian Institute of International Affairs, Toronto.
(See also under International Journal.)

THOMSON, D.C. and SWANSON, R.F.

Canadian Foreign Policy: Options and Perspectives (Toronto: McGraw-Hill Ryerson Ltd., 1971). This book contains a very brief factual account of relations with Latin America.

TOWARD LATIN AMERICAN
DEVELOPMENT: AN INTER-
AMERICAN FORUM IN CANADA

Supplement produced in January 1972 by the OAS General Secretariat in conjunction with Américas, containing in condensed form some of the speeches given at the second annual conference of the Canadian Association for Latin America, Montreal, October 14-15, 1971.)

WOOD, Bernard M.

"La Nueva Política de Canada hacia America Latina", Foro Internacional (quarterly of the Colegio de Mexico), Vol. XII, No.1, julio-setiembre 1971.

WRITINGS ON CANADIAN-AMERICAN STUDIES

(Michigan State University, 1967.) Of interest are papers on various aspects of Canada's relations with Latin America by R. Craig Brown and Heath Macquarrie, M.P.