

5. A person appearing before an authority in the Requesting State shall not be subject to prosecution based on the testimony given, except in relation to perjury.

ARTICLE 10

Proceeds of Crime

1. The Requested State shall, upon request, endeavour to ascertain whether any proceeds of crime are located within its jurisdiction and shall notify the Requesting State of the results of its inquiries. In making the request, the Requesting State shall notify the Requested State of the basis of its belief that such proceeds may be located in its jurisdiction.
2. When proceeds of crime are located, the Requested State shall assist with or initiate such proceedings as are permitted by its law to prevent any dealing, transfer or disposal of the property or assets pending a final determination by a court of the Requesting or Requested State.
3. The Requested State shall, to the extent its law permits:
 - a. give effect to a confiscation or other similar order relating to the proceeds made by a court of the Requesting State; or
 - b. initiate appropriate forfeiture proceedings in relation to the property or assets found in the Requested State.
4. Proceeds confiscated pursuant to this Treaty shall be retained by the Requested State, unless otherwise mutually decided in a particular case.
5. In the application of this Article the rights of bona fide third parties shall be respected.
