

ing ones; as if M——rs were obliged to possess a Knowledge of any Beasts but Asses. Do not the Noble and Right Honourable Grooms, whose whole Skill and Understanding consist in examining a Horse, commit similar Blunders every Day? Is not his —— —— duped by my Lord ——, and my Lord —— continually? Will you insinuate, or expect that a M——r, who thinks but little of Politics, ought to understand more than a noble Jockey, who thinks of nothing else but Horses? Where then is the m——l Weakness in this Article? Does not all this form Part of that System, of sooner reducing you to Peace and Humiliation?

You complain most grievously also against the dooming the Subjects of England to triple Labour, for those of H——r; Sir, give me leave to assert, that this is not only Weakness in you, but impious also. Is not the humiliating Scheme continued in this Determination, which proves your Weakness, and are not the true Dictates of Christianity, almost forgotten in this Land, strongly inculcated by this m——l Proceeding, which
