

than ever they were by Land, in the Empress Queen; to her we are to add the Empress of Russia, the King of Poland, who is a Subsidiary Ally of ours, the King Elector of Hanover, the Prince of Hesse, the Electeur of Bavaria, who is a Subsidiary Ally of ours also, and the King of Sardinia. In opposition to these, France has the Kings of Sweden, Denmark, and Prussia, to whom she pays annually in Subsidies 725,000 l. Sterling; and the Electeur of Cologne, who has also a Subsidy from her, who it is more than possible are all the Allies she can depend upon in case of a War with us; for Spain, it is almost impossible to imagine will interfere as she can have no Interest in the Quarrel, and it is more essential to her to preserve Peace with Great-Britain than all the other Powers of Europe; and if she does not meddle, it is highly probable neither Parma nor Naples will, as those two Courts are greatly supported and influenced by Spain. But to admit Spain does join France and declare against us, her Navy added to that of France will then be no more than equal to that of ours in Ships and Guns, and the Spaniards cannot man their Fleet, nor the French victual theirs, in time of War, so as to act with full and combined Force at once. Therefore if this should be the Case, we shall have nothing to fear but upon the Continent of Europe, where there can be no other Authority at present than mere Conjecture for what Part our Allies, or those of France, will act, or how far either Side shall make it the Interest of some of the Powers
