

COMMENTARIES ON THE

War in Russia and Germany, 1812-13.

BY THE HON. COLONEL GEORGE CATHCART.

With 28 coloured Diagrams and Plans. 8vo. 14s.

"This humble but authentic contribution to the general stock of materials from which historical knowledge is to be derived, is offered as the testimony of an eye-witness of much he has recorded, and one who had peculiar opportunities of correct information respecting the rest."

*Author's Preface.Travels in Turkey during 1847-8,

MADE FOR THE PURPOSE OF EXAMINING INTO THE REAL STATE OF THAT COUNTRY.

BY CHARLES MAC FARLANE, ESQ.

2 vols. 8vo. 28s.

"Mr. MacFarlane was altogether eleven months in Turkey during this last visit; remaining first for a brief period at Constantinople, then performing a country excursion principally to the great Pashalik of Brusa, and, after another residence in Constantinople, visiting Nicomedia and Adrianople. His accounts of the provincial pashaliks appear to us to possess the greatest interest, and his occasional notices of agricultural or manufacturing operations in places removed from the capital are well worth reading. These he varies by cleverly-drawn portraits of people with whom his travel brought him in contact, by remarkable statistical details not seldom telling against his own views, and by notices of the public departments of state, and of the leading Ministers, which we are not at all disposed to think inaccurate or overcharged. The abuses of the Harem are described generally as in no respect reformed, melancholy descriptions are given of the manners and morals of women of station, and Mr. MacFarlane speaks with ill-disguised contempt and sarcasm of the private character and pursuits of the Sultan."

*Examiner.History of Spanish Literature.

By GEORGE TICKNOR, Esq.

3 Vols. 8vo, 42s.

"A history of Spanish literature is a desideratum to England, apart from the general utility of such works when well executed; and Mr. Ticknor's history is as well executed as we are entitled to expect such a book to be. It is a labour of love and of time; Mr. Ticknor's first studies in Spanish literature were commenced upwards of thirty years ago, at Madrid, and have been continued with increasing zest to the present day. In the pursuit of his studies, and the formation of his collection, he has enjoyed the assistance of many Spaniards of literary eminence, as well as of his countrymen Irving and Prescott. These external aids, however, are of little consequence without natural aptitude, and Mr. Ticknor is in himself well qualified for his task. His critical taste and acumen are good, with a leaning to the favourable side: he is not only well read in Spanish literature, but in the collateral lines of French and English critics and German scholars."
