

XVI.

If the creation of Heaven and Earth consisted only, in the production of new forms out of old material: And comprised very little beyond our Solar System: How could the celebration and memorial accorded be appropriate?

XVIII.

But if the work of those Six Days included, and consisted of —The absolute creation in a moment, —and out of nothing,—of our innumerable lenticular star-clustre, Freighted with occult forces and orbs varied, each in position and speeding.

And if completed in the Five following Days, as luminaries, as planetary systems, such as ours, with exquisite flora and wondrous living creatures While each of the innumerable starry host bears a name, is distinguished; severally revealing the glory of God:

And if every object, animated or void of life; lofty and awfully grand, or descending to the inconcievably minuter: Yet each exhibit equally an endless study, of might invincible, sublime design perfect affieency, exquisite finish, and supreme beauty:— Have we not a glimpse of why The Infinite King of Eternity, The Great God, "w faints not, neither is weary," "Rested, and was refreshed." Rested the Seventh Day and blessed and hallowed it, For in it He rested from all His work which God CREATED TO MAKE.
