he had demanded the Release of the Prisoners and the Restoration of their Effects, if that can be called a Demand of the M—r, before he wrote of it to his Court, and soon after he knew the Affair. But you see that this Release of the Prisoners only, was not comply'd with in March, and the Restoration of the Effects at no Time; this Demand then, if made, had no Effect on the French.

Our Embassador says, in the Beginning of the second Paragraph of his sirst Letter, "I "find by the Paper your Lordship has sent "me, these three Persons are of the Number of those demanded by Mr. Clinton, and "named in Mr. De la Jonquiere's Letter." Now, Sir, unless you tell me what Orders accompanied this Paper, I must still insist that these Prisoners were never demanded; or, which was all I meant, and all that has been understood by it, never released in Consequence of a Demand, but a Request.

His Lordship adds also in this Letter, mext Tuesday I will represent the Case to Mr. St. Contest." But does this prove he did it, for you hear no more of it? He says in the next Letter, of March 8, that he had seen Mr. Rouillé, and given his Paper of C 2 Complaints,
