

Answer.—I believe Samuel Tippet to be fully competent to carry on the works in Prince's Bay Mine, or any other mine; and as soon as the siiver is reached, by the sinking of the shaft, I would advise the Company to get a master smelter, which will be all the Directors will require.

(Signed)

JOHN TREGONING.