

CONTENTS.

xiii

CHAPTER I.

LONDON.

	PAGE
Welcome at London—Close of Orange Correspondence—Duke of New-castle's Reply—Parallel between London in England and London
in Canada West—Indians of Sarnia—Distribution of Medals—
Proceeds to Niagara	226

CHAPTER XI.

THE FALLS OF NIAGARA.

Temporary Quiet—Aspect of the Falls—How to see Niagara—The Falls Illuminated—Performances of Blondin—Visit to the Whirlpool—Fatal Accidents	235

CHAPTER XII.

HAMILTON.

Laying corner-stone of Monument to Sir I. Brock—Address, and the Prince's Reply—St. Catharine's—Contrast between Upper and Lower Canada—Situation of Hamilton—Reception of the Prince—Levé at the Royal Hotel—Ball at the Anglo-American
—A Turbulent Dutchman—Inauguration of Agricultural Exhibition and Farewell Address—Excellence of Arrangements—
Departure from Hamilton	253

CHAPTER XIII.

THE UNITED STATES.

American Railroads—Appearance of the Country—Its extraordinary Fertility—Land Speculations—Forest Scenery—Fugitive Slave Settlement at Chatham—Arrival at Detroit—Enormous Crowds —American Curiosity—From Detroit to Chicago—A Glimpse at the Prairie	271

CHAPTER XIV.

CHICAGO.

Arrival at Chicago—Procession of "Wide-awakes"—Growth and Prosperity of the City—Its importance as a Corn Depôt—Moving
a Dwelling-house—On a Shooting Excursion	285