

trees put forth their buds. The lark is high in the air, and sings his song of praise. The young birds chirp in the hedge. The foal frisks in the lawn. The lambs bleat in the park. See how fast they run to drink of the clear stream.

LESSON VII.

wild	blown	think
said	puss	loose
trick	tree	fools
horn	close	boast

The wild cat said to the fox, that she had but one trick to get clear of dogs. Poh! said he, I have ten at hand, and ten times ten in a bag. A horn was blown. Puss ran to the top of a tree, and saw the Fox's tail close