HEAT WAVE GRIPS ONTARIO

TEMPERATURE ROSE TO 103

In Kingston during the past two days was 82 degrees, according to Queen's observatory report.

Heat Drove to Suicide.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 3.—The hot weather took heavy toll here to-day, altho the official maximum temperature of 95 degrees in the shade, two degrees lower than that of yesterday. Three deaths, one of them a suicide, two attempts of suicide, and six prostrations were reported as a result of the heat.

Fifty Prostrations.

BOSTON, July 3.—All heat records of the weather bureau were shattered to-day. Three deaths and more than 50 prostrations were reported in Boston and its suburbs alone, while scores of people in other parts of New England were overcome by suffering from the intense heat. The White Mountain resort of New Hampshire, famous for its cooling breezes, offered little relief for at Lancaster and other points mercury climbed upward until it registered 96 degrees in the shade. At Burlington, Vt., the weather bureau reported temperature of 103, exceeded by four degrees the highest mark that has been reached previously during the 76 years that local records have been kept.

In Boston the official mark was 102. Deaths of three occurred in the afternoon. Some department stores closed early, and many factories shut down at mid-day.

"Beverly, the summer capital, sweltered in a temperature of 108 degrees to-day."

St. John Was Lucky.

ST. JOHN, N.B., July 3.—While many sections of New Brunswick withered in the heat, sixty-two was the highest thermometer registered in St. John to-day.

One Death in Ottawa.

OTTAWA, July 3.—As a result of the intense heat Matthew Mathew, by-gone inspector, died to-day. The Dominion policeman found him lying unconscious on Lover's Walk below Parliament Hill.

Mrs. Joseph P. Coatsworth.

After a brief illness at her home, 228 St. George street, Mrs. Joseph P. Coatsworth passed away to-day. The late Mrs. Coatsworth was born in Bolton, Ont., on May 1, 1838, and came to Toronto in 1858. She resided in the vicinity of her home on St. George street, Toronto, for many years.

She was a member of the St. George's Methodist Church.

The funeral takes place to-day at 3 p.m. to St. James' Cemetery.

BORDEN RUNS INTO A HOT-BED OF LIBERALS

Speaks at Rosthern and Saskatoon—His Western Tour Terminates This Week.

SASKATOON, July 3.—(Special.)—The last week of the opposition leader's campaign in the prairie provinces opened with a quiet meeting at Rosthern this evening.

Mr. Borden was met at the station by several hundred people, and was driven out to the fair grounds, where he was welcomed by a luncheon and addressed by the fair directors. Subsequently he met the grain growers and addressed a public meeting. Rosthern puts up his deposit and generally constituency which is represented at Ottawa by George M. Craney Liberal.

Rosthern especially is a strong Liberal town and the chairman of the meeting made no attempt to disguise that fact.

"If there is a little band of Conservatives from the Atlantic to the Pacific," he said, "I need encouragement. It is the band at Rosthern. We have been fighting an uphill game and we are still up against it. But I do not think there will ever be an acclamation from Rosthern. We will always put up a fight. As each victim puts up his deposit and generally fails to redeem it, all we do is to put a pile of beeksteak to our black eye and hunt for the next victim."

There were about 200 people at the meeting and, as usual, they gave Mr. Borden an excellent hearing.

There were no interruptions, but there was little cheering. There was, however, a ready response to any appeal to loyalty. They cheered Mr. Borden when he spoke of the value of the British markets. They cheered his references to British preference. They cheered his emphasis on the need of administering the public funds so that the people should get a dollar's worth for every dollar spent. They cheered his platform on the Hudson Bay Railway, the grain elevators and the railways to the provinces of their natural resources, but they did not cheer his arguments against reciprocity and they did not cheer when he asserted that the people would not ratify the reciprocity agreement.

There was no meeting with the grain growers at this place.

The civic address at Rosthern was given by Acting Mayor Stewart.

Mayor McGregor died at the end of the week, and his funeral was being held just after the public meeting, and was attended by Mr. Borden and his party. Out of respect for the mayor the meeting was closed without ceremony. The attendance at the meeting, too, was undoubtedly reduced by the general sympathy with the mayor's family.

ACCUSED OF FALSE PRETENCES

John W. Taylor Arrested As Outcome of Stock Transaction.

John W. Taylor, married, 63 years, living at the Prince George Hotel, was arrested last night by Detective Miller upon a warrant sworn out by Clarence A. Rundle charging him with securing $1500 from him by false pretences.

The charge arose out of a stock transaction in which Rundle purchased stock to that amount and paid over the money, which was placed by agreement in a separate account in an American bank, where it still lies. He was admitted to bail.

M.H. SUBMITS BILL TO LOCAL HEALTH BOARD

How the Regulations Affect the Toronto Dairies and the Milk Producers.

The local board of health met this afternoon to consider Dr. Hastings' milk bill and his report re the visits of his inspectors to the slums and boarding houses of the city.

The bill, while somewhat lengthy, contains very little of a radical nature and should be acceptable to all the milk interests. Subject to the approval of the board of health it has received the approbation of the provincial board of health.

Part one of the bill deals with producers and relates to the care of cows, the manner of feeding, watering and milking, and the cleanliness of the milkers and the care of cans and other utensils in which milk is contained. The regulations are first set forth and then follow recommendations as to the best manner to observe them.

Part two concerns Toronto dairies, each of which must be provided with a room for receiving the milk, separate from the "milking" room, and the milk must be delivered to the city in a milk can or a milk pail, and must not be used for manufacturing of cheese, butter or other milk products.

Floors are to be of concrete or some other non-absorbent material, and graded and well-drained. All drainage must be discharged at least 500 feet from the dairy, falling a properly constructed cesspool or sewer.

Milk pumps and pipes used in connection with the milk must be of smooth interior surface and so constructed that they can easily be taken to pieces. They must be thoroughly cleaned after each use.

Milk vats are to be of smoothly turned metal, with joints soldered smooth and flush with the surface. They must be well and carefully covered.

Cans and bottles after using must be properly cleaned and sterilized and the church, James Watson, Controller of the City of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Grier.

Who Were There.

Among the many patrons were: A. C. Macdonnell, M.P., South Toronto; Miss Macdonnell, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. and Mr. Chapman, Mr. C. W. Drimann, Mrs. Sher, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sprague, Mrs. and Mr. G. H. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Grier.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., July 3.—(Special.)—Over 400 delegates to the Knights of Columbus convention arrived yesterday and to-day the delegates were met at the New Ontario dock by all the officers of the local lodge, and escorted to the hotel, where they were met by the delegates of the Knights of Columbus hall and marched in a body to the Sacred Heart church, where a high mass was celebrated and a sermon delivered by Bishop Fallon. Following the service the knights marched to Hussey Hall, where the first degree was exemplified by the degree team from St. Paul's, and at 5 o'clock this evening the third degree was conferred by Leo A. Ball and team from Duluth, Minn.

Tomorrow morning the knights center upon the real business of the convention. Mayor Munroe will be among the speakers at the formal opening.

BLIND PIGS IN TEESWATER

Officers Tried at Kincardine Get Stiff Fines.

WINGHAM, July 3.—On the night of June 17, Provincial Constable Philippen, and assistants, surprised the local option town of Teeswater by swooping down on a couple of the slops where he supposed blind pigs were being kept. The manager, managed by Jacob Lambartus, and his son were searched, being found with the blind pigs, also one blind pig, owned by David Kaplan, was seized and a quantity of whiskey was found.

The offenders were brought before Police Magistrate Barker, Kincardine, who fined Philippen $100, and the two charges and was fined $200. His son Alex Lambartus, pleaded guilty on three charges of selling, and one of keeping liquor in the premises, and was fined $200 and costs, $50.60.

David Kaplan, who owned the blind pig, pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and costs, $12. Also one Geo. Kaum, a man of Desmott, pleaded guilty to selling liquor during prohibited hours, and was fined $50 and costs.

GREAT SHOW AT SCARBORO.

It was certainly a great show that the Powers Hippodrome elephants put at Scarboro Beach yesterday afternoon and evening, and quite justified the large crowd that journeyed down to the park.

In the afternoon the elephants took their promised bath in Lake Ontario and disported themselves to the delight of thousands. Baby Minnie went in the water, and floated about on a log like a duck. The bathing stunt was a very interesting one, and was helped out by the keepers, who dived off elephants' heads, swam under water and otherwise raised the ordinary abduction to the plane of a vaudeville act.

Of the tricks the Powers' elephants perform it is only necessary to say that they do about everything anybody ever saw an elephant do, and several original specialties of their own.

Powers' elephants should not be missed for there was never a better show of the sort seen anywhere.

Wills and Hassen, the famous hand and head balancers, and Blanche Sloan, sister of the famous Tolo Sloan, the jockey, who does some sensational work on the flying rings, completed the bill, which is undoubtedly the strongest yet presented at Scarboro Beach.

TAKE PART IN POLITICS

Conservative Club Garden Party Proved To Be Highly Enjoyable Function.

"The time is at hand when questions of grave importance to women will have to be fought out," declared Arthur Van Koughnet, in his opening speech at the first annual garden party of the South and Central Toronto Conservative Club. This was the first occasion in the history of the association in Toronto which ladies have come forward and taken an active part in political affairs, and as president of this club, I take great pleasure in welcoming them.

"I want to see the Conservative women in their places in the discussion of the matters most concerning them. In the coming election, as much interest is taken by the women as by the men, and I feel that this is but the token of an awakening interest in the world of politics that can but work for the good."

The grounds were most beautifully decorated for the occasion. All the bunting and decorations used for our annual day were still up, and the scene was made resplendent by a blaze of lights from vari-colored Japanese lanterns. The pretty little booth at the back end of the lawn was splendidly arranged, and the cool, tempting drink and delicious ice cream proved a fine antidote to the excessive heat of the evening. Mrs. Hurst was in charge of the booth, with Mrs. Arthur Van Koughnet, Mrs. W. W. Sprague, Mrs. Gertrude Birmingham to assist her.
