SECOND PROGRAM OF HIGH SCHOOL GAMES

Five Senior and a Like Number of Junior Games Scheduled.

was rumored yesterday that the Spanish "flu" was about to disrupt the high school rugby program scheduled for Friday. The World was told that one senior and two junior fixtures would have to be held up owing to the epidemic, but Secretary Barton of the High School League has not heard of any postpone-League has not heard of any postponements. The secretary will not be a spectator at any of the games. The "flu" caught up with Mr. Barton yesterday and the sentleman is real sick.

Cakwood and Humberside are billed to stage their games at Varsity Stadium tomorrow. The teams shift this week and some tidy battles should be the order. The schedule is as follows:

—Senfor—Humberside at Oakwood

Malvern at Jarvis.

Technical at Harbord.

Farkdale at Riverdale.

North Toronto at Commerce.

—Junior—

Malvern at Jarvis.

Malvern at Jarvis.

Technical at Harbord.
Humberside at Oakwood—
Parkdale at Riverdale.
North Toronto at Commerce.
North Toronto defaulted their junior fitsure last week to Parkdale and will likely follow the same procedure this week. North Toronto found it hard siedding to gather one team, and will devote all their energies to the senior series.

Beaches senior city rugby team will hold a practice at Kew Gardens this evening at 6.30. As the Beaches have a dardagame on Saturday, the following players are requested to be out early and in uniform: Tait, Coutie, Haskings, Martin, McIlroy, Smith, Wellinsky, Menzies, Dibble, Kay, G. Martin, Sproule, Borebank, Nugent, Oakley, Pearce, Stewart, Purcell, Withers, Pennock, Halliwell.

The Parkdale Athletic Club, after two attempts to secure enough men ito hold a practice, have definitely decided to drop out of the senior O.R.F.U. series. This leaves Beaches and Dentals in Toronto and Camp Niagara team at Hamilton. Parkdale's withdrawal leaves Dentals without a game until October 19. These two teams were scheduled to meet here Saturday.

The Dentals rugby team put in another good workout last night. Burns, the good middle wing and formerly with the Argos, joined the squad last evening. Muckle McLean and Dunk Munro are expected out tonight and Bill Box will soon have enough players to form two good teams.

BATTERY TEAM STRONG.

That the 69th Toronto Battery, artillery ball champions of Canada, are confident—in fact, sure—that they can beat Hillcrests, city champions, when they meet at Broadview field on Saturday in the third round for the Ontario championship, is the claim made by Captain Bert ("Buck") Hughes, the crack first baseman of the gunners. "I figure we will beat Hillcrests," stated Hughes. "Down at Petawawa we trimmed everything we met and faced the best pitching that could be found anywhere in the country. In my judgment we have had better pitching in our camp games than there has been in the Toronto or Ontario series. I think that the pitchers at Petawawa were better than the average Toronto GUN CLUB.
