

STORE TO LET
200 sq. ft. Temperance and Yonge, 2743, and all other business, steam heated, gas and electric light. Immediate possession.
H. H. WILLIAMS, 2012
26 Victoria St. SENATE P.O.

27TH YEAR PROBS: Moderate winds; some showers; hot much change in temperature.

ANY,
ED
AY, JUNE 7

oft their hats pers send tions are delivered the firm's a large all kinds.

1.00

59c
ar stock
made Tooke
some all per-59c
Striped
4 to 44
98c
eb Sus-earable
25c
ckwear,
w pat-25c

da.
deposits
rates avings
33
st.
GS
Wholesale
D. Limited
Toronto.

rade,
A board of e last night
President,
nt C. H. W.
Drewry, nearly all tion and rmed of 13
e town and here.

MAKE CRIMES ADDED TO DEFENCE TRIES HARD TO DISCREDIT EVIDENCE THE ORCHARD ATROCITIES

Witness Does Not Fail Under Cise Fire of Cross-Examina- tion—Says He Never Betrayed Haywood.

CRIPPLE CREEK STORIES MUCH INSISTED ON,

BOISE, Idaho, June 7.—Counsel for Wm. D. Haywood continued their attack on the testimony of Harry Orchard at both sessions of the trial today. They made their strongest assault on the witness' connection with events beginning with the explosion in the Vindicator mine and ending with the earlier meetings of the Western Federation of Miners in Denver. To the extent that traffic with "the other side" in the war between labor and capital in Colorado was discredited, they succeeded in discrediting the witness. Taking up the admission that Orchard made in direct examination that he was treacherous to his comrades in Cripple Creek by disclosing a train-wrecking plot, they developed that Orchard entered the employ of D. C. Scott, who had charge of the railway detectives. Orchard said that, with Scott, he met K. C. Sterling, a detective in the employ of the mine owners. He said that Scott paid his expenses and accompanied him to Denver on the trip when he first met Moyer and Haywood. He said that he had agreed to report to Scott, but that he led to him, never intended to report to him, and never did report. The defence also tried to show that Scott, because he stood well with the mine owners, Orchard was never molested by the militia in Cripple Creek during the strike. Orchard admitted that Scott had told him that if the militia interfered with him he was to send for him, and that the militia did not interfere with him nor his house. Orchard became jealous.

Orchard said he went to Scott first because he had not been paid for his work at the Vindicator mine, and he was jealous because he was given hard work like the Vindicator mine job, whereas other men were assigned the simple job of train-wrecking by attaching rails. More evidence, small, was added to Orchard's record today. The Cripple Creek woman with whom he committed bigamy had three sons; Orchard stole high-grade steel from a messmate; he stole two cases of powder from the Vindicator mine; he stole powder to make one of the bombs thrown into the Vindicator cop pile, and he led.

The defence endeavored in various ways to throw doubt and improbability upon Orchard's whole Vindicator mine story and the alleged connection of W. F. Davis and William Easterly with the affair, and the circumstances under which Orchard testified that he met Moyer and Haywood, and was paid for the commission of the crime. It also tried to discredit Orchard's story that he was sent back to Cripple Creek with unlimited credit and orders to commit any act of violence that he cared to. The defence endeavored to show that Orchard was not a man of honor, and that he was not a man of honor, and that he was not a man of honor.

Suddenly toward the close of the day the defence took up the trip Orchard made to Southern Colorado with Moyer in the early part of 1904, and showed that Moyer feared to go south unguarded because "mine owners' official thugs" had beaten up innocent union men, and that he sent for Orchard to aid in protecting him.

It was agreed that they should carry cut-off shotguns and sit in the center of the train. Orchard said that he attacked them could defend themselves. Attorney Richardson, in questioning the witness, made it very clear that this was an entirely straight-forward arrangement, "free from any fake."

Counsel flared up several times during the day, and in the last episode at the trial, Mr. Hawley said that Mr. Richardson told a falsehood when he intimated that Orchard was a fixed witness. The trial will go on to-morrow, and cross-examination of Orchard, who has been on the stand three days, will be concluded.

MRS. STEUNENBERG HOPES HUSBAND'S ASSASSIN WILL REPENT ATROCIOUS CRIMES

SEATTLE, Wash., June 7.—A despatch from Walla-Walla says: "Harry Orchard has done many wrongs, but I hope that he has repented, now that he understands their magnitude, and that he will be given a chance to lead a good, true and honest life after the present ordeal has passed."

This is the statement of Mrs. Frank Steunenberg, who is attending the annual camp meeting and conference of the Seventh Day Adventists at College-place. She seems to be above hatred of the man who killed her husband. As to Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, she expressed no opinion, saying she had not thought of their connection with the case.

ORCHARD'S EVIDENCE RECALLS INCIDENTS TO MANY.

DENVER, June 7.—Following the testimony of Harry Orchard in the Haywood trial, interviewers here with several persons referred to are printed to-day. Supreme Justice Gebbert, who, Orchard said, was the intended victim of a bomb, says that Orchard's testimony fits in with the incidents connected with the killing of Wally. Orchard's wife, Mrs. Steunenberg, wife of the former governor, recalls distinctly the night when two men followed her carriage. Orchard Wolfe, thru whom Orchard said he communicated with Pettibone, vehemently denied the truth of the story. Max Match says that Orchard told him he would kill Governor Steunenberg because the latter had prevented him from becoming a millionaire.

14 TO 1 IN FAVOR OF VERDICT WITFUL MURDER

Enquiry Into Death of Taushway at South Mountain—Some Conflicting Evidence.

SOUTHAMPTON, June 7.—(Special) The adjourned inquest on the death of the late James Taushway was begun to-day in the town hall here. A tremendous crowd was in attendance and in the efforts to get in the hall almost mobbed the officials.

W. C. Whitaker, M.D., of North Williamstown, assumed his chair as inquester, and Crown Attorney James Dingwall of Cornwall acted for the crown. Provincial Detective Return of Toronto assisting in the case.

Mrs. Alex. Morey discovered Taushway dead and said she was sent by his friends and always would be so. These words appeared to mean that he had committed suicide. Alpheus Crowder, a neighbor, said that on going for the cows at 5 a.m. Sunday he thought he saw a man at the corner of Taushway's house. Taushway had money a week before he was found dead, because he saw a roll bill. Hiram Bartley thought deceased had died of a stroke, but had peered the pillow down after half an hour and saw blood.

HIGHER STIPEND FOR MINISTRY

Augmentation Limit Will Be Raised—Why Good Men Are Lost By the Church.

MONTREAL, June 7.—(Special.)—At the close of a heart-searching debate on the necessity for making adequate provision for the ministers of the church, Rev. Dr. Lyle declared this afternoon in the Presbyterian general assembly that it was the happiest day he had ever spent in a church court. He saw visions of larger things in the action taken, which was to fix the minimum stipend for augmented charges at $300. It was expected that other churches, as on a previous occasion, would follow the example.

The temper of the assembly so far has been directed towards a practical effort to deal with pressing administrative questions, and to bring the church into line with changing social conditions. The morning was spent on the theory up-to-date matter of employing women in the work of the church. An overture from Toronto, supported by Principal MacLaren, Dr. J. A. Turnbull and A. MacGillivray, suggested some method by which graduates of the Ewart training home should be specially designated. Winnipeg Presbytery asked the assembly to set apart an order of women to be known as deaconesses to serve as nurses, visitors and in other ways.

Dr. Gordon (Ralph Connor) did not know how the assembly felt on the large questions of Christian philanthropy, but he assured them the church had lost much by handling over to other societies and brotherhoods work that should have been done by the church. In Winnipeg they had a sick nursing mission, and his own congregation supported a race track. Judge Forbes remarked that Protestants had no institution where first offenders could be sent, such as the Roman Catholic convent of the Good Shepherd.

A motion approving the principle of the employment of women in church work was adopted by a vote of 14 to 1. His custodian is Detective G. A. Campeau of the provincial police of Ontario, from Windsor, Ont. Loundsberry was taken into custody months ago sent to the boy to Windsor to attend college. The lad was supplied with money and soon fell in with fast company. The race track claimed his attention and he then began to make acquaintances among the fast set in Detroit.

Dr. Lyle presided at the necessity of making the minimum stipend $100. The great heresy of the church in the twentieth century was in having one standard for the minister; and another for the laity. Could any minister be a man and preach the gospel of owing no man anything when he had not the wherewithal to meet his own obligations? Principal Patrick pleaded earnestly for adequate incomes. The children of ministers were given full the church by the treatment accorded their parents.

Rev. A. J. McGillivray, Vancouver, compared the wages paid to artisans with what was paid to ministers in the west. He found men in the Yukon playing the condition of the men in augmented charges. George McCusick, speaking of the conditions in the west, advocated compulsory English education by the government of children in foreign immigration districts. He described the means by which ministers eked out a living cutting wood and in other ways. One man took up a farm and declared he would preach the gospel free. "If the people do not listen to me will go home and feed my pigs," he announced. Mr. McCusick proposed a $1200 minimum for married men, with $1000 for others.

Rev. W. F. Mod, declared the church was face to face with a serious condition. "Five years ago he had introduced boys to business now who quits up over his shoulder across the street. Young men would not enter the church under such conditions. One had said: 'I will go and serve the Lord Jesus Christ as a man in the best way I can, but with my hand and my feet I will depend on a dole and spend my life striving to make ends meet.'"

ANXIOUS POLITICAL MOTHER: "Do you know, Richard, I'm afraid Allen Aylesworth here will never be the strong prop for our political old age we once thought he'd be."

PRODIGAL SON RETURNS TO HIS DYING MOTHER

Detective Campeau Having Race Against Death With Young Russell Loundsberry.

CINCINNATI, June 7.—(Special.)—A broken-hearted lad, in the custody of a detective, boarded a train at the Central Union Depot this afternoon, bound for Kingsville, Ont. There, his mother is dying, and it will be the detective's object to get there with his charge in the few days that he has left to live.

The boy is Russell Loundsberry, aged 18. His custodian is Detective G. A. Campeau of the provincial police of Ontario, from Windsor, Ont. Loundsberry was taken into custody months ago sent to the boy to Windsor to attend college. The lad was supplied with money and soon fell in with fast company. The race track claimed his attention and he then began to make acquaintances among the fast set in Detroit.

Murder at Warden, Man.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 8.—(Special.)—The police are looking for a man named B. King, who is wanted for the murder of a man near Warden on the G.T.P.

Price of Winnipeg Land.

WINNIPEG, June 8.—(Special.)—An English syndicate has bought a block of land on Portage-avenue, nine blocks from Main-street, at $90 a foot.

WHAT AMERICANS THINK OF OFFER OF FRANCE

Admits Receiving Tender of Good Offices, But Looks Upon it as Addition to Cordiality.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—While the American government admits receiving a French tender of good offices to promote a stable understanding between the United States and Japan, the practical use to which such a tender can be put is not regarded as apparent at the present time.

The only negotiations between the United States and Japan which can be said to be pending, or likely to be the subject of intercourse in the near future, relate to the terms of a possible immigration treaty. Nothing whatever has arisen between the two nations to preclude the most straightforward and direct dealing on this question, and consequently the point at which the offer of France could be availed of in this connection is not apparent.

From a diplomatic viewpoint, the San Francisco incident is closed. The way has been pointed out whereby those Japanese who were injured as the result of a mob attack can recover damages from the City of San Francisco. It is pointed out that the one regrettable reminder of this incident is the use which a portion of the press has made of the making of it to create hostile sentiment.

With diplomatic relations between the United States and Japan not only untroubled, but with nothing on the horizon which leads to apprehension, the French offer is accepted as it was extended, as making a most happy addition to the cordiality between the two nations.

BODY OF THOMAS GURNEY IN MARKET STREET SLIP

Engineer at Firstbrook Box Factory Had Been Missing Three Weeks.

The body of Thos. Gurney, 53 years, 217 East Front-street, was found in the West Market-street slip by Capt. Charles Black of the stonehocker Mary E. Ferguson, at 5.45 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The body was badly decomposed and had evidently been in the water for some time. It was removed to the morgue and Coroner Johnson was notified. An inquest will be held. Gurney had been engineer at the Firstbrook Box Co's factory, East King-street. He had left there about May 17, on which day he had pawned his watch for $5. He had been drinking heavily.

The World traced the man's identity thru a card of the Rhodes Metallic Co. bearing the name of Joseph S. Dawson. Mr. Dawson was taken to the morgue, where he identified Gurney, as did A. H. Vanderburg, clerk with the Firstbrook Company. Positive identification was only possible thru the fact that the man's left thumb was missing.

She said that he had been missing three weeks and was very drunk when last seen. She scouted the idea of suicide, saying that his home life was happy, save for periodical sprees. Gurney's wife was not told of his death last night, as she was in a nervous state. "His son Edward, 23 years, was married last Monday," said Mrs. Thomas. "Mother was only told a few days later and now this will drive her mad."

$5,000 Queen West near Bathurst Solid brick store, lot 131212 to land. F. J. SMITH & CO., 61 Victoria St.

MANZANT GUILTY OF IMPROPER CONDUCT

Dismissal of Governor of Toronto Jail Announced After Cabinet Discusses Judd Report.

LACK OF DISCIPLINE SHOWN BY ENQUIRY

Governor Vanzant of Toronto Jail has been dismissed because of the charges which were brought against him, and which were investigated a couple of months ago by Mayor Judd of London, acting as a commissioner at the request of the Ontario government. It was known some days ago that Mr. Judd had his report prepared, but it was not until yesterday that his finding was received by the government. The commissioner finds himself compelled to say that he believes that Mr. Vanzant was guilty of improper conduct with female prisoners, of incompetence, of irregularities, and of favoritism. In addition to this the commissioner declares that the discipline of the jail has been extremely bad, and while he excuses Mr. Vanzant from taking bribes, he considers that in every other respect almost he is unfit to be the head of such an institution.

Mr. Vanzant's dismissal was announced yesterday afternoon by Hon. W. J. Hanna, after a cabinet meeting, in which the whole question had been thoroughly thrashed out. It was decided that the governor should only be retained until the 15th of the present month, but it is quite probable that his successor will be named to-day. The man who seems to have been selected by the government is Rev. Dr. Chambers, pastor of the Parliament-street Methodist Church, whose name has been connected with the position for some time past.

As a subordinate of Sheriff Mowat, Governor Vanzant receives his dismissal from that official, and his successor will have to have his appointment countersigned by the same hand. This, of course, is simply the formal part of the procedure, but whatever the sheriff announces will be sanctioned by the government.

According to the commissioner's report, for a great many years there has existed a joint management of the jail, the governor and the sheriff, but the City of Toronto, which has the control of the government, under the present arrangement is one that is not in the best interests of the jail. The steward and engineer feel that they are not under the control of the government, and do not provide that the steward shall not interfere with anything affecting the discipline of the jail, which is a serious matter. The report expresses the opinion strongly that the jail does not come up to modern ideas of jail construction, and is not in keeping with the progress and prosperity of the City of Toronto and the County of York.

The report declares the governor guilty of improper conduct, incompetence, irregularities, favoritism, and declares that there was a lack of discipline in the jail. Mr. Vanzant, however, made no personal report, the report states, out of the irregularities he committed in the jail. In spite of this, however, the commissioner was of opinion that the usefulness of the government has passed, and that under the present circumstances his services had better be dispensed with.

The World and Sunday World can now be delivered to any address on the island. Orders and changes of address please to Mr. 252, or leave at 83 Yonge-street.

NO. 45. Not Good After 12 o'Clock Noon June 17, 1907

Trip to London Ballot

THIS BALLOT GOOD FOR 1 VOTE

For _____

District No. _____ Address _____

County _____ City _____

When fully filled out and received at The World Office by mail or otherwise on or before expiration of date shown above. Not good after that date. Void if name voted for has not been properly nominated. No ballot will be altered in any way, or transferred, after being received by The World.

"THE MAN WHO WORKS WITH HIS HANDS"

ALSO

"THE MAN WHO WORKS WITH HIS BRAINS"

To Wit: The Farmer
To Wit: The Railwayman.

Special delivery by President Roosevelt on the first and a compendium from many sources on the latter.

SEE
The Toronto Sunday World.

Continued on Page 7.

Continued on Page 2.