LIBERALS IN HAMILTON TO SUPPORT STUDHOLM

Cast in Their Lot With Party. Hon. J. S. Hendrie Addresses Conservatives.

HAMILTON, Nov. 19.- (Special.) Allan Studholme, M.L.A., the Labor representative of East Hamilton, has conducted himself so as not only to please the Labor party but also the Liberals, for at the annual meeting of the Liberal Association this evening the retiring president, James Chisholm, stated that there was no reason for the Liberals opposing Mr. Studholme at the next election. He said he thought the Liberals should cast in their lot with the Labor party. P. D. Crerar, K.C., was elected president of the association, and other officers chosen were: Arthur Oheir, vice-president for East Hamilton, and James Matthews, secretary; J. L. Counsell, West Hamilton, and Ald. Kirkpatrick, vice-presidents for West Hamilton; W. T. Evans, secretary, and James Dixon, treasurer. Liberals, for at the annual meeting of west Hamilton; W. T. Evans, secretary, and James Dixon, treasurer.

Hion. J. S. Hendrie intimated in a speech to-night at the opening of the Conservative Club that the Ontario Government was considering the advisabil-ity of moving the Central Prison from ernment was considering the advisability of moving the Central Prison from Toronto to the country, where convicts would be employed at raising produce. He said that the commission on prison labor had filed its report, and while not being at liberty to divulge its contents he would say that in the future prison-made goods would not come into competition with products of free labor. He upheld the administration of the Whitney Government, mentioning that the revenue from the mining department amounted to nearly two million dollars this year, so far as compared with $45,000 in 1904. E. A. Donovan, M.L.A., Brockville, was the speaker of the evening, and he made a fine impression. Samuel Barker, M.P., also delivered a telling speech, John Milne presided At a meeting of the board of works this afternoon, Ald. Baird found fault because a piece of H., G. & B. track on Sherman-avenue had not been torn up, as the council had directed several months ago. The board will investigate.
