ALIEN ENGINEER TO REPORT ON RAILWAYS

Canadian Association Makes Strong Protest to Dominion Government.

SLIGHT ON CANADIANS

Impression Given That This Country Cannot Produce Competent Engineers.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—The Canadian Society of Civil Engineers is out with a strong protest to the Dominion Government against the appointment by the commission operating under the government of "alien" engineers, who are to investigate the railway situation for the government of an American engineer to the postmaster general. The commission investigating the railway situation consists of A. H. Smith, general manager of the New York Central Railroad; Sir Henry Drayton, chairman of the Dominion Railway Commission, and Sir George Fiala, the London financier.

A Strong Protest.
The Canadian Society has taken the matter up with its members, several of whom are in Ottawa. In a circular letter it has issued it says: "We wish to record our strong condemnation of the policy of placing in the hands of aliens the engineering work of a commission appointed by the Canadian government to investigate the railways for which the Canadian community has paid."

It states, further, that the inferences to be drawn from such appointment of aliens is that "the Canadian engineers who built the railways are not competent to report upon them; that the Canadian engineering work, in many cases enjoying government subsidies, is of a poor quality; that the Canadian engineers, and that the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers, who are not considered worthy a consultation on an important engineering question."

The society is requesting its members to protest to the government, through their representatives in parliament, and those having influence with the government, against such action.

"TWIN BEDS" COMING TO THE GRAND.

The joyous merriment of Salisbury Field and Margaret Mayo's delightful comedy "Twin Beds" will again be revealed at the Grand on Monday next, when it returns for another week's engagement. "Twin Beds" is a mirth-provoking comedy of life among apartment house dwellers, constructed solely for fun-making purposes. Its story revolves around the flirtation of a young bride, her insanely jealous husband, an impressionable tenebrous and his shrewd wife, a number of misguided friends who jump at many conclusions and a lackadaisical serving maid with a propensity for making mistakes. The seat sale opens this morning.

IRISH FUN-MAKER HEADS GOOD PROGRAM AT SHEA'S

Walter C. Kelly, the "Virginian Judge," and an old Toronto favorite, afforded fun that fairly rolled over itself to patrons of Shea's at the matinee performance yesterday. The clever Irishman had stories that fell from his tongue with the contagion of mirth that deluged his audience in irrepressible laughter. Hearty applause was given at the close of his act.

Gus Van and Joe Schenck were received with the welcome of old time favorites. Their solo and duet work for voice and piano, and their clever imitations were given with all their oldtime vim, several recalls emphasizing their popularity.

"Just a Small Part of Life" was presented by Bonnie Rempel and her company. The sketch is a satire on life and particularly that part of it called "Society." The part of Everygirl's real self was taken by Miss Rempel, who had good support, the others in the cast being James Lee Wiley, J. M. Clayton and Jane Pike.

Kurtis' educated Roosters present a novel and clever act with the feathered tribe as the principals. "Are you lonesome?" is the title of a Boardwalk skit attractively presented by Bonnie Ward and Farren. Dorothy Regal, bright and entertaining as ever, presents "The Girl at the Cigar Store," showing life in a big centre and how she prevents an elopement.

Very clever high wire gymnastics and eccentricities in songs and dancing. Henry Lowry and the Lacey Sisters with new pictures in the kinetograph complete the bill.
