

OUTLOOK BRIGHTER ON UNEMPLOYMENT

Opinion Expressed That Crest of Problem Has Now Been Reached.

OTTAWA IS HELPLESS

Little Assistance Looked for From Federal Authorities to Provide Work.

While the unemployment situation in Toronto yesterday was apparently as acute as ever and many cases of distress were reported, signs were not wanting that an improvement is near and that the crest of the problem has now been reached.

The unemployment branch of the Toronto board of trade, after reporting no improvement at the present time, has been informed by a number of Toronto's largest industries that business had taken a turn for the better, and that it was expected the next month or two will see them taking back most of their former employees and, in some cases, additional outside help from the ranks of the unemployed.

That an improved outlook is now apparent was borne out by Superintendent Miller of the government employment bureau, who stated to 'The World' yesterday that signs of this were to be found in the increasing number of relief cards returned to him by men who had found employment.

A number of these cards were received in the mail on Monday, but more than double the number were received yesterday. It was stated that laboring work in the county on water-works extensions is sufficient to meet the requirements of the unemployed who are physically able to undertake this kind of work, but for those who are not, work is not available.

Mr. Miller appeared before the Scarborough township council yesterday and explained the system under which the unemployment office is conducted in Toronto. THE OPENING OF THE LEGISLATURE

THE ARRIVAL OF LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR CLARKE AND ESCORTS IN QUEEN'S PARK.

St. Michael's Hospital with severe colds is increasing. One of the married men who sought relief yesterday gave his age as 54 and that of his wife as 72.

No Ottawa Assurance. Toronto may expect very little from Ottawa this winter in the matter of work on new buildings, according to a letter received yesterday by Mayor Church from Hon. F. B. McCurdy, minister of public works.

Mr. McCurdy writes in part: "The work on the new customhouse would be started this year. No appropriations for this building had been made and nothing could be said about what would be done until after the estimates had been passed. The proposed bridge over the western gap would also have to stand the test of the estimates were up."

Mayor Church remarked that the government seemed to find plenty of money to spend on Quebec harbor and on equipment for the G.T.R., which it pretended to own. In reply to his criticism of the department, Mr. McCurdy stated that the estimates would be practically closed down during the winter, and if it had not been for the unemployment situation the department would have had more than 25 men employed at this season of the year.

Arrangements were made, however, to carry on the work on the construction of cribs and other work with a result that between 80 and 90 men have been and are employed, or will be employed, at or above their ordinary requirements.

The outlay for relief in the city is now running about $5,000 a day, of which the city pays one-third. The city has voted $100,000 and the total expenditure to date is said to be around $300,000.

Difficult Rent Problem. The relief office at the Krausmann Hotel had the biggest day since they had been opened yesterday, when the number of men handled passed the 2,000 mark.

The rent problem is now one of the hardest to handle and it is daily growing more acute. The unemployed heads of families who had a few dollars put by have been forced to spend it on rent and coal and are now facing the possibility of being turned into the street.

As many as 120 families are now on the list of the relief office as having arrears in rent due and no money with which to meet it. In about half of these cases the families have received notices to vacate.

A widow with children reported yesterday that a bailiff had been put in her home, although the rent, which was due in advance, was not really in arrears until February 1, when the January rental would be owing.

The authorities report a number of similar cases of families being given vacating notices because rent had not been paid in advance and the matter is to be taken up from a legal standpoint with the expectation of forcing over-reaching landlords to wait for their money until it is legally due.

An appeal for clothing was made on behalf of the destitute unemployed men, especially underwear and socks, to help them withstand the zero weather. Some of the men are sticking their bare feet into their shoes and trying to make the best of it, but the number who are being sent to the streets is increasing.

CHARGE IN THEFT. May Cytackick, 88 Bessborough street, was arrested last night by Detective Black on a charge of theft. The woman is alleged to have stolen some clothing from the Joe Simpson woolen mill, Berkeley street.

FALLS TO SIDEWALK. When he fell to the sidewalk at Yonge and Adelaide streets last night, John S. Watson, 120 Mutual street, received a cut over the right eye. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital in the police ambulance.

FOR COMBATING DISEASE. Professor J. A. Dale, of Toronto University, and Dr. Gordon Bates delivered lectures at the General Hospital yesterday afternoon to the members of the speakers' committee of the Canadian National Council for Combating Venereal Disease. Other lectures will be given at the same place tomorrow afternoon by Drs. B. T. Watson, E. J. Trow and E. E. King.

LIQUID AIR EXPERIMENTS. At Astronomical Society. Some interesting and occasionally startling experiments with liquid air were shown by Professor John Sturtevant of the University of Toronto at the meeting last night of the Royal Astronomical Society, held under the direction of J. R. Collins, the president. Addresses interspersed the demonstrations, chief among which was an extended exposition of the Laue-Bragg-Einstein theory of relativity of motion between ether and the earth, which is soon to be tried out by Professors Michelson and Morley, both well known in Toronto.

THE ADDRESSES WERE OF SPECIAL INTEREST in that they proved that thru the channel of the spectroscopic it was possible to prove that many of the stars and planets had within them many of the same constituents which made up the earth. J. R. Collins delivered an interesting address upon the new stars.

DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN PRINTERS' UNION OFFICIAL. Sam Hadden, a well-known member of the Toronto Typographical Union, died yesterday morning. For the past nine years he was financial secretary of the union. During his early connection with the union he practically controlled the organization's political affairs and always took an active interest in the union. When a young man he lived in Orangeville, and later worked on the Guelph Herald, then about 18 years ago came to Toronto.

For two years Mr. Hadden was president of the Typographical Union, and an international officer for several years. He was also international delegate to the Trades and Labor Congress for six years. On Sunday night Mr. Hadden was removed to the hospital suffering from a stroke. He soon became unconscious and never rallied. He was about 62 years of age and single.

The body will be at Evans' undertaking parlors on Danforth avenue, near Logan. The funeral will take place from there to Norway Cemetery at 2 p.m. tomorrow. Members of the Typographical Union and others of the late Mr. Hadden's wide circle of friends can view the body in the meantime.

PROTEST SALE OF PRISON-MADE BRICK. In Competition With Manufacturers, Made by Clay Products Men. A protest against the placing on the open market of bricks made by prisoners in competition with brick-makers who have to employ labor at prevailing wages was made yesterday by the Canadian National Clay Products Association.

In his opening address the president, William Burgess, said: "During the past year we had occasion to protest to the Ontario government against the sale of brick on the open market in competition with free labor. In view of the small margin of profit on brick, advanced wages and transportation charges, all possible business is required to keep our plants running during the winter months. At no time have orders been so numerous that they could not be filled by our plants using free labor."

"When the government established their own plant to give work to prisoners and supply brick for the government, the manufacturers did not object. Neither is there any objection to the sale of products made at no other Canadian plant. The premier and minister of labor have been advised of the competition coming from the prison brick being put on the market and early action is expected."

"There is talk of a bill to fix a ceiling on the number of bricks to be introduced and carried by the Ontario legislature. It will drive manufacturers to other provinces where such a law is not in force, and the other provinces will reap the benefit of the expense of Ontario, which is not desirable, either for the well-being of the nation, or for the good of the clay products business."

Recently in a letter for publication J. P. Anglin advised architects and engineers to get the habit of designing to pay him full wages. While as possible, and substitute therefor reinforced or plain concrete, giving as his reason the shortage of bricklaying labor. Such a recommendation coming from the head of the Canadian building and construction industries is apt to do considerable harm to an important member of the building and construction industries.

"I understand that there is a move on foot by the Labor party of our government to have the compensation of the workers increased to 100 per cent of their wages. The workers now receive 65-75 per cent, of their wages and the doctor's fee paid, or their hospital charges paid if they are in the hospital. There is no doubt about the compensation being a proper demand on a business, and the business should be able to take care of its workers who are injured at their work. But it will be a great mistake to pay him full wages. While I find most men straight and above board in dealing with them, there are many who would take advantage of the people of this city. It is a long time since I have been here to speak, and it may be some years before he will return, and those who wish to hear him should not miss the opportunity that will be given tonight at the meeting of the Canada Bible Society."

DR. SPEER TO ADDRESS CANADA BIBLE SOCIETY. Dr. Robert E. Speer, who arrived in the city this morning from New York, will give the address at the annual meeting of the Upper Canada Bible Society this evening. It is well known to the people of this city. It is a long time since he has been here to speak, and it may be some years before he will return, and those who wish to hear him should not miss the opportunity that will be given tonight at the meeting of the Canada Bible Society."

RESERVE DECISION ON TRACK BETTING

Counsel for Racing Association Claims Legislature Lacks the Power. Argument was concluded and judgment reserved in the appellate division yesterday in the case in which the attorney-general of Ontario asks if it is within the competence of the Ontario legislature to stop betting at race tracks.

W. N. Tilley, K. C., for the Canadian Racing Association, submitted, answering Chief Justice R. M. Meredith, that the Ontario legislature could not stop betting at race tracks. He argued that the power to regulate gambling is a provincial power, and that the Ontario legislature has no authority to interfere with the Dominion's power to regulate gambling. "It would be in direct conflict with the Dominion act," he said. "But we have bylaws as to gambling, by the Chinese, for instance."

"Yes," explained J. W. Curry, K. C., for the Western Racing Association, "but under the code."

It was suggested to Mr. Tilley that regarding racing, gambling might be treated as a public nuisance. Mr. Tilley replied that, while the Dominion recognized the point, the province asked: "Can't we stop the pari-mutuel?"

The chief justice wondered whether the province might, or might not, say: "No race course shall make any profit."

Mr. McCarthy, K. C., for the Ontario Jockey Club, following Mr. Tilley, quoted from Commissioner Rutherford's report as to racing and asked permission to file a copy.

Mr. McCarthy: "Dr. Rutherford takes the evils complained of by Mr. Raney (now attorney-general), and of the benefits submitted by the associations. He cuts the apple. The result is that the good is overwhelmingly greater than the evil. Ten years after the Miller bill, Mr. Raney alleges that the associations make huge profits."

Claims No Distinction. "Gambling and the drink business cannot be distinguished," said Mr. J. M. Godfrey, "both involve evils which may be made a matter of police control and regulation. Apart from the proper exercise of Dominion legislation, the province has the power to deal with both under sections 12 and 16 of 92."

"Gambling being legal at common law," Mr. Godfrey argued, "it can be carried on to the extent to which it is not prohibited either by Dominion or provincial legislation. A certain kind of gambling is prohibited by the Dominion parliament under the powers to make criminal law. With regard to the kind of gambling set forth in the exception of the criminal code, it has not seen fit to legislate."

"In the first place," continued Mr. Godfrey, "they are not dealing with gambling all over Canada. They are simply legislating as to a certain limited number of well-defined race tracks or racing associations. Moreover, they are dealing with contracts. They even step in between different parties to the gambling contracts and say what amount the stakeholder shall retain as his compensation. They even direct when the machine is to be locked. Surely these are all matters coming under 13, property and civil rights in the province."

TRADE BOARD OFFICERS ASSUME NEW DUTIES

Three of the new officers of the Toronto board of trade, President W. H. Alderson, First Vice-President D. A. Cameron and Second Vice-President A. O. Hogg, were sworn in by Mayor Church yesterday.

"Now that we have abundance of power," the mayor said, "we should be able to get a large number of British manufacturers to locate here, and with the work of completing the harbor improvements there should be an era of prosperity before us. We look to the board to keep up the good work." He thanked the members for the assistance rendered in connection with the unemployment situation.
