MRS. GARDNER'S AT HOME.

A large and successful at home was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. A. Victor Gardner at the home of her mother in Pauline avenue, when she was very becomingly gowned in her wedding dress of ivory duchess satin with point lace, and pearls, and French knots, and carried an armful of pink roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Gardner was assisted by her mother, Mrs. S. B. Hart, wearing a gown of pale blue satin with overdress of Alice blue ninon, and her sister, Miss Ethel Hart was in yellow satin and lace and wore a bouquet of red Richmond roses.

Mrs. A. Gardner, mother-in-law of the hostess, also assisted, wearing a royal purple satin gown with overdress of real lace embroidered in gold with hat and plume to match.

The drawing-room was decorated with pink roses, palms and smilax, and the tea-table in the drawing-room with a large rustic basket filled with large yellow chrysanthemums and marguerites.

Mrs. Willard Dunlop, who was gowned in black Pan velvet and hat to match, poured tea, assisted by her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Howard Abraham (late of Newfoundland) in black Pan velvet and pink roses.

The young ladies assisting were: Miss Marjorie Knox in pale pink satin with overdress of green ninon; Miss Dorothy Ellis, pale blue satin draped with pale pink ninon and crystal trimming; and Miss Della Anderson in pale yellow chiffon with overdress of lace and gold caught up with yellow buttercups. In the evening the assistants were entertained by the hostess.

Mrs. Gardner will receive every second Wednesday.

Miss Vera Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kirwan Martin of Hamilton, and granddaughter of His Grace the Archbishop of Ottawa, and Mrs. Hamilton is the guest of her grandparents, and will be presented at the drawing-room on Nov. 26.

Miss Violet Biggar has returned from a visit in Toronto, where she was the guest of Mrs. Kirkpatrick. Miss Dorothy Langmuir of Toronto, will be Miss Biggar's guest this week, and will attend the drawing-room and the various attendant festivities connected with the opening of parliament.

WINDELER—TOMLIN.

St. Stephen's Church was the scene of a large wedding at half-past two o'clock on Thursday afternoon, when the marriage was solemnized of Edna Beatrice, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Tomlin, to Mr. Harold Windeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Windeler, 261 Spadina avenue. The service was fully choral, and the church was beautifully decorated with quantities of white chrysanthemums and palms, the guest pews being portioned off with white satin ribbon and clusters of chrysanthemums. The Rev. J. S. Broughall performed the ceremony assisted by the rector, the Rev. T. J. Wallace. Dr. Doward presided at the organ. During the signing of the register Miss May Perry sang "A Wedding Morn," by Lohr. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely and graceful in a beautiful gown of ivory duchess satin, with Brussels lace, draped with crystal net, and court train hemmed with seed pearls and caught at one side with a pearl rose. She wore a tulle veil with wreath of orange blossoms and heather and carried a shower of lillies of the valley and Bride roses, and also wore the bridegroom's gift, a half-hoop diamond ring. Miss Gertrude Tomlin was maid of honor, and wore pink charmeuse draped with shadow lace and large black silk beaver hat with pink tulle and silver tissue and one large pink rose under the brim. She carried pink chrysanthemums tied with pink tulle and wore the bridegroom's gift, a pearl ring. Miss Reta Hughes and Miss Victoria Colwell were bridesmaids, and were gowned alike in buttercup charmeuse draped with white shadow lace, and black velvet hats with tulle pleating and large yellow rose under the brim. Each carried an armful of golden chrysanthemums tied with yellow tulle and wore the bridegroom's gift, pearl and filigree earrings. Mr. Herbert Windeler, the bridegroom's brother, from Ottawa, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Albert Heck, Mr. Norman Douglas, Mr. Byran Berry, and Mr. Clarence Tomlin. To each the bridegroom gave silver monogrammed card cases, his gift to the best man being a jeweled one. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, in Bathurst street, which was profusely decorated with white chrysanthemums and palms. The bride's table was in a large marquee erected on the lawn, and was centred with the cake surrounded with shaded yellow chrysanthemums with white roses and lily of the valley at the corners. An orchestra was stationed in the hall. Mrs. Tomlin, mother of the bride, looked very handsome in crepe de chine, trimmed with white Brussels lace and pearl and diamond ornaments, a purple velvet hat with shaded ostrich plumes, ermine furs and a corsage bouquet of mauve orchids. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Windeler, was in black charmeuse, with black shadow lace and violets, a black velvet hat with black and blue osprey. Mrs. McHenry, sister of the bridegroom, wore black satin with white lace and blue, bouquet of orchids and black hat faced with blue. Mrs. Job wore a very handsome gown of shot blue and pink taffeta, with real lace, a black plumed hat and sables. The bride and bridegroom left for a trip to New York, the former traveling in a black velvet tailor-made and black silk beaver hat, with white osprey and a set of moleskin furs (the latter the gift of her mother). She carried a silver mesh bag, the gift of her young brother. Confetti was distributed in white satin bags bearing the monogram of the bride and bridegroom in gold by the Misses Muriel and Mildred Tomlin, who were gowned in blue satin, with corsage bouquets of lily of the valley, and large black beaver hats. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Harold Windeler will reside at 83 Balmoral avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Tomlin gave a theatre party for the attendants in the evening, at the Royal Alexandra, when they occupied two boxes.

MRS. HEALEY'S TEA.

Mrs. Michael Healey of St. George street gave a beautiful tea on Thursday afternoon to introduce her daughter, Miss Rita Healey, and also in honor of Miss May O'Neil, another pretty debutante of the year. The hostess was wearing a very becoming gown of white charmeuse, veiled with silver and crystal embroidered net, and carried a sheaf of beauty roses. Her daughter, a dainty little brunette, was in white satin and crystal with pale pink rosebuds on the corsage, amethyst and pearl ornaments, and bouquet of pink roses, while Miss May O'Neil, who is tall and stately, looked handsome in grey blue shot satin, draped with cream lace, and carried American Beauties. An orchestra was in attendance, and the whole house was decorated with quantities of flowers of all kinds, the debutantes' many bouquets making the reception-room fragrant, while the polished tea table in the oak-beamed dining-room was almost covered with real lace, and centred with a gold basket of giant chrysanthemums, tied with tulle to match, large gold bows with shaded candles being at the corners of the table. Mrs. Faulds and Mrs. E. B. Brown were in charge of the tea room, and Mrs. O'Neil wearing a beautiful taupe gown and hat, assisted in the reception-room, the other assistants being Mrs. Heintzman, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Kenna, Mrs. McDonagh and Miss Hynes. A few of the many guests were: Mrs. Gerhard Heintzman, Mrs. Lowthar Reinhart, Baroness Von Senten, Mrs. MacMahon, Mrs. Gus Foy, Miss Gladys Foy, Mrs. and Miss Cosgrave, Miss Adele Thomas, Mrs. Curry, Miss Lynne, Mrs. Davies, and her two daughters, Mrs. Downey of Whitby, Miss Hoskin, Mrs. Gillies, Mrs. A. Blight, Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Hugh Kelley, Misses Kelley, Mrs. and Miss Carroll, Mrs. Nerlich, Mrs. Ambrose Small, Mrs. Dwyer, Mrs. J. S. Tower, Mrs. Wm. Walsh, Mrs. Prenagart, Mrs. Cassidy, Miss Roscler, Miss Elma Layton, Mrs. P. P. Phelan, Miss King Dodds and Miss Sweetnam.

McCREARY—PENGELLY.

A quiet wedding took place on Thursday afternoon at the parsonage of the Rev. R. J. Fallis, Sorauren ave., when Miss Ida Pengelly and Mr. Harry McCreary were married. The bride, who was unassisted, was wearing a smart tailormade of gray with gray charmeuse blouse and black hat with willow plumes. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring. After the ceremony the bride and groom left for Boston and other points.

Mrs. T. E. C. Butler, 43 Langley avenue, will receive on Thursday, Nov. 24, from 4 to 6, and after the new year on the third Thursday of the month. Mrs. Thomas Butler, 60 Simpson avenue, with her.

"The Mecca of Correct Dressers"

Imported Garments for Women

THE exclusive nature of our garments continues to draw the discriminating dressers of Toronto and district, and gives us unbounded satisfaction. Our aim is to present distinctive styles at reasonable prices and we are surely pleasing the exacting women in both price and style. Never a week passes at "Maison Boyle" without a display of new garments.

Charming Afternoon Frocks

For afternoon teas and bridge parties we are showing some delightful models in crepe de chene, crepe meteor, charmeuse, brocaded charmeuse, Duchess satins and messalines. One model in black is exceptionally attractive with shadow lace effectively used in draping. Other models have artistic vest effects of set-in chantilly lace. Long, close fitting sleeves finished at wrists with shadow lace ruffles are the predominating styles. They are priced

17.50 to 37.50

A feature of the showing described above is that it embraces sizes 39 to 58 symmetrically cut to suit stout figures.

Utility Coats

We describe three practical and stylish models that are not equalled in the city at our low figure.

1—Chinchilla with velvet collar and cuffs or contrasting color of self material. They have cutaway and straight fronts—¾ and full length—in shades of navy, tans and grey. Ornamental buttons form the trimming.

2—Peach cloth with plaid facing, ¾ length with fancy cut cuffs and collar.

3—Blanket cloth in polo style which embodies belt at back, large pockets and collar. We have these in browns, blues and greys.

Better values have not been shown in town at

Letters of a Slim-Made Woman to Her Fat Sister

First Letter On the Fallacy of "Training Down" to a Comfortable Size.

Dear Sis:—If you could see me now you'd surely wonder what witchery had wrought the transformation—for you wouldn't recognize your Amazon sister in the gracefully molded figure sitting here.

Yes, I have a surprise for you—that huge mountain of fat you once knew as sister is no more—I'm as trim a body now as you'd meet in a day's walk. And the change from fat to just plump was so easy, and gradual, and natural, and perfectly harmless, that I didn't realize it was taking place.

You remember that horrible nightmare that confronted me every day—the physician called it "exercise"—but as I look back on it now I can call it nothing but torture. Lying flat on my back and trying to kick holes thru the ceiling with my feet. Attempting to stand on my hands on a chair when nothing less than a derrick would lift my bulk into the air. Standing with stiff knees and trying to touch my toes with my fingers—when I couldn't even see them. And other things as ridiculous. "Exercise!"

I just quit it all. A few months ago I got a mixture of ½ ounce Marmola powder, ¾ ounce Cascara Aromatic, 4¾ ounces Peppermint Water at the drug store, took a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime—took it persistently and faithfully—and now, sis, I really have a beautiful figure, smooth skin, firm flesh and the digestion of an ostrich. It's simply wonderful.

Lovingly, BETTY.

Home Face Peeling Becomes Popular

(From Fashion Reporter)

No complexion treatment yet discovered seems to have become so generally and so immediately popular as the mercolized wax process. Evidently the reason for this is that this method actually gets rid of a bad complexion, which can hardly be said of any other. To temporarily hide or bleach the defective skin with cosmetics, cannot compare with the effect of literally removing the skin itself. Mercolized wax takes off the offending surface skin in flour-like particles, a little at a time, until there's none of it left. The new complexion thus produced exhibits a healthy glow and girlish beauty obtainable in no other way. This wax, which you can get at your druggist's, is applied at night in the same way you use cold cream, and washed off next morning.

Here is the only thing I know of that actually does remove wrinkles, removes them quickly, and at trifling cost: Powdered saxolite, 1 oz., dissolve in ½ pt. witch hazel. Use as a face bath.
