People don't want artificial teeth to carry around in their pockets nor keep at home in their bureau drawers if they will know where to find them when the door bell rings, they want teeth for service.

If you have a plate that no dentist has been able to make fit, why not try us; we have satisfied thousands and why not you? Our teeth are so natural in size, shape, color and the expression they afford to the features as to defy detection EVEN BY A DENTIST unless closely examined.

Our new attachment holds them as solid almost as though they were strung in the mouth.

FUNERAL OF PERCY N. LEE

Impressive Services Held This Morning in Mission Church of S. John Baptist.

Impressive services marked the burial of Percy Norman Lee, son of G. H. Lee, manager of the North End branch of the Bank of New Brunswick, which took place today from the Mission church of St. John Baptist, Paradise Row.

The body was, this morning, conveyed from the home of deceased's parents, Rockland Road, to the church, where there was a requiem celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 9:30 o'clock, the celebrant having been Rev. Father Conyers, priest-in-charge.

The funeral service was held at three o'clock this afternoon and was largely attended.

The choir, under the direction of the organist and choromaster, Nell Blair, rendered the hymns, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "Jesus Lives," (omitting the alleluia), also the proper psalms, and, as the body was being taken from the church, the "Nunc Dimittis." The pallbearers were: R. J. H. Smith, H. L. Smith, F. C. Parke and three members of the Guild of St. Laurence.

The body was clothed in cassock and cotia, deceased having been a member of the Guild of St. Laurence, (the academy of the guild of the church), and from the hour of the requiem until that of the funeral service was guarded by his brother members of that organization.

A number of beautiful floral tributes attended the eastern in which the deceased young man was held. Among these may be mentioned a cross of white roses from the Guild of St. Laurence, a pillow of white roses bearing the name of the deceased, "Percy N. Lee," from the "R. C. S. P. M. from Robbsey, Collegiate School," a large crescent of white roses and carnations from G. Company, 62nd regiment.

Interment was made in Fernhill, Rev. Father Conyers also officiated at the grave.

MISS HELEN DARLING TO GIVE CONCERT HERE

Miss Helen Darling, formerly of the Boston Grand Opera singers has accepted the role of prima donna in the new opera by Victor Herbert to be produced shortly. It will be very gratifying to Miss Darling's many friends in this city to hear that she is to give a recital in the Opera House in about a month. Miss Darling will bring with her for this occasion a very excellent baritone and a lady flutist, the latter having played before all the crowned heads of Europe. This will be a musical treat to the music lovers of St. John and judging from Miss Darling's popularity in this city there should be a packed house. Further particulars of this concert will be given in these columns later.

The Young Men's Society of St. Joseph will hold a literary afternoon in their rooms, tomorrow, when papers on "The Great English Cardinals," will be read by H. L. McInerney, N. L. McGowan, Joseph Lewis and E. J. Moran.

The services at the Tabernacle church are expected to be of more than ordinary interest tomorrow. The subject of the morning sermon will be "Grasping at the only hope," and of the evening sermon, "The tragedy of Belshazzar's Feast."
