

whole or in part has been promoted by the Society. In Great Britain there are Auxiliaries 664, Branches 412, Associations 2,811. Total 3,887. Of these Associations the far greater part are conducted by ladies. In the colonies, other dependencies, &c., there are Auxiliaries 89, Branches 770, Associations 200. Total 1059. Since March 7, 1804, when the Society was originated, the total number of Bibles, New Testaments, and Parts, issued by the Society, has been 45,539,452. During the first year of the Society's organization the issues were 81,157. During the last year reported, ending March, 1864, the issues were 2,495,118.

UPPER CANADA BIBLE SOCIETY.

From the Twenty-fourth Report of this flourishing Auxiliary we cull the following facts. Three Colporteurs have been employed during the past year. The issues of Bibles, Testaments, and Parts, have been 26,593. Stock on hand at the end of the year, Bibles 14,563, Testaments 13,276, Books of Psalms 264, Parts 264. Indian Translation.—Parts 45, Testaments 50, Books of Psalms 1,611. Value $10,896.58.

MONTREAL AUXILIARY BIBLE SOCIETY.

In the Report of the Montreal Auxiliary a just tribute of respect is paid to the memory of their deceased President, the late Captain J. H. MAITLAND. "He was called to the Committee in 1835. Many years ago he went forth to the destitute parts of the country as a volunteer Colporteur. He served as a Vice-President for twenty years, and as President on the death of Dr. HOLMES. He was remarkable for his catholicity of spirit and sincere love of the Scriptures." Issues of Bibles for the year 1863, 1,433; Testaments, 6,869; portions, 611; total, 14,913; being an excess of 1,300 above any former year. Three Bible-women have been employed by the Ladies' Bible Association.

OTTAWA AND QUEBEC AUXILIARIES.

These sister institutions continue to prosecute their labors with zeal and success, aided by our generous parent.

CONCLUSION.

Your Committee would close their remarks in the soul-stirring language with which their illustrious parent concludes her Sixtieth Report, hoping that it may be heartily responded