AMUSEMENTS ST. JOHN PEOPLE IN THE MOVIES

Imperial's Film of Sand Point Celebration Excellent—A Great Big Programme

The clear, wintry weather and the Imperial's extra special efforts to please everybody during the holiday season, conspired to fill the big King square theatre to overflowing all day yesterday. It was ideal weather for show-going and those who attended were treated to an ideal programme. First, mention may be made of the bright little vaudeville skit, entitled A Model Couple, in which George Scott and Ethel Marke played to the tingling delight of everybody. They presented their playlet in a truly artistic manner and were well received.

The other pictures included a two-part Lubin, entitled On Lonesome Mountain; the Hearst-Selig Weekly, brim full of war pictures, and the first of the new railway adventure series, The Hazards of Helen, in which the heroine was shown on horseback, jumping from a cliff fifty feet high into a river in an effort to save the flying express. These Hazards of Helen are sure to be popular features for Monday and Tuesday.

McKENNA'S FLIRTATION A GOOD LAUGH MAKER

Thompson Company at the Opera House Again Satisfy Expectations of Audience

One of the most amusing productions of the Thompson Musical Comedy Company since their opening in the Opera House is "McKenna's Flirtation," which began its week's run last evening. With new dialogue and a musical programme interpolated it made a decidedly worthwhile show of its class and was received with the frequent laughter which is the most sincere tribute to a comedy.

Letters from Mrs. Ryan and her daughter to Timothy McKenna and his son are delivered to the wrong man and the plot is hung on the complications which follow.

As McKenna, a wealthy contractor, Mr. Westernman has a role which provides him with an excellent opportunity for fun-making and his delineation of the character left little to be desired in the way of broad comedy.

Walter Bedell, a new member of the company, made a fine impression as Michael Ryan, a reticent man, whose social aspirations and his scenes with Mr. Westernman were the chief feature of the affair.

In the role of Mrs. Ryan, Miss Parks was better suited than in others in which she has appeared and played the part with pronounced success.

Other members of the company contributed their share to the success of the production, the bright little chorus helping a lot.

GEM FAVORITES IN INTERESTING SERIAL

Attractive Programme Opens Week at Cosy Picture House

Two favorites with audiences accustomed to attend the Gem Theatre, Grace Guard and Francis Ford, were seen in leading roles of the "Lady of the Lake" picture of the "Mysterious Leopard Lady." These two clever players of Lucille Love have scored another success in this stirring drama which is a detective story of particular interest.

Ford is seen in the role of Detective Kelley seeking the cunning female "crook" a role enacted by Miss Guard, but realizing that she is too clever to be captured by him. The story pleased audiences at the Gem yesterday immensely.

A Vitagraph comedy screen, for such it really was, "Who's Who in Hogg's Hollow" afforded great delight and aroused hearty laughter, while there was also a sweet, tender Biograph story "Just a Kid" which received much favorable comment. The Gem orchestra also had a fine programme. This show will be repeated today.

A FILM SURPRISE PACKET AT THE UNIQUE.

Sheriff of Muscatine a Sure Fire Novelty. It is gratifying to drop into a picture theatre and see something away from the beaten track, something that affords a pleasing relief from the usual dramatic offering with its commonplace variation of the simple love story, and if by this fact alone, The Sheriff of Muscatine, at the Unique Theatre, is well worth seeing. It is a novel drama built among scenes of the west and told in two parts by the star players from the Kay Bee.

"Hurry up Gran'pa Sun!"

Sun brings morning. Morning brings breakfast. Breakfast brings Tillson's. That's what little Bobby Bruce is thinking about as he wakes up.

What a full, natural flavor Tillson's have! That's because only the plumpst of oats are used.

In a plateful of porridge made from Tillson's there's generous nourishment for a hard morning's play.
