FOOTBALL SEASON TO START SOON
A football practice has been called by the St. Peter's club for Wednesday night at 6 o'clock and judging from the number of veterans and recruits who have signified their intention of turning out a strong team should be picked to carry the colors. Some excellent material is expected by Coach Arthur McCluskey amongst the recruits and these with the former veterans of gridiron struggles will make the light for positions on the team a hard one. The St. Peter's park will be used for practice and all that is needed to make the initial practice a huge success is fine weather.

You Never Can Tell.
Jack Dempsey will fight again next July unless another war should break out, in which case his country will call him to some shipyard.

HORSES AND HORSEMEN OF 30 YEARS AGO

Recollections Stirred by Re-printed Account of Border Race

Walter H. Millican Culls from His Rich Store of Turf Knowledge Interesting Memories of the Horses That Took Part in Contests Referred to.

An article from the St. Croix Courier of this date 30 years ago, reprinted in the Times on Saturday, stirred the memory of horsemen of those days and was read by them with much interest. Walter H. Millican, a former Telegraph reporter, than whom none carries more detailed recollection of the horses and owners of the nineties, furnishes the Times with the following out of his rich store of turf knowledge, written from memory after reading the Courier's reprinted account of the races of September, 1892:—

On the ninth page of your paper of Saturday last I was interested in reading a summary of horse races which took place in St. Stephen thirty years ago, and with a note appended stating the races were the most famous, which ever took place on the St. Stephen track. The writer can assure you that, not only were the races referred to famous, but also the drivers and horses which participated were famous. Consequently a few comments might not be omis.

The writer can remember the races referred to, as well as if they had taken place yesterday, and not only that, but can remember the positions in which each horse finished, every heat. The three minute class was won by Arc Light, driven by C. W. Bell, who is today living and well, and is known as the dean of the horse racing fraternity of the maritime provinces. Arc Light was a son of Rampart and was owned at that time by Dr. Taylor of Hampton. He was a very fast, black in color, and was raced for years as a stallion and afterwards as a gelding. He went from here to Toronto when he became the property of Mr. Fraser of the firm of T. G. McMullin & Co.

Jubilee, which horse won second position to Arc Light, was a beautiful chestnut mare, by Melbourne King, and afterwards got a record of 2:17, very fast for those days. Her driver, A. L. Slipp, was certainly an artist in his line, and it is doubtful if there was ever a better race driver in the maritime provinces. Mr. Slipp was born on the St. John river, but was located in Nova Scotia for many years. Besides Jubilee, Mr. Slipp also owned her sister, Melbourne King, Helen and Belle, both by Melbourne King, of the fastest mares on the continent at that time. He also owned Heck, Sea King, Frequent and many others. Mr. Slipp married a daughter of the late Moses Cowan of Fredericton. He was a frequent and welcome visitor to our city.

Favorite, which horse finished last in the race, was a small black mare by All-right. She was very speedy but a bad actor and would not score, it being necessary to score her a half mile every time she started while the other horses in the race waited for her at the distance pole until she came round.

The summary shows the 23rd class to have been won by Rocket, owned by D. V. McCorkin, at that time proprietor of the Victoria Hotel in King street. Rocket was a big brown trotter by Olympian, and out of Nellie Backman, owned by Chas. F. Backman of the celebrated Stonyford stock farm in Massachusetts. Rocket was a good trotter with a splendid way of going and was trained principally on Courtney Bay flats by Phillip Richmond.

Sea King, which horse won two heats, and second to Rocket, was a son of Melbourne King and out of a mare called Jessica. He was a trotting wonder and was a mere poney, beautiful blood may in color, with splendid conformation. He afterwards went to England where he became famous as a trotting poney.

Southwinn also mentioned in the summary was a big bay stallion imported by Mr. Southwinn, who was at that time a prominent North End trolly. Southwinn afterwards became the proprietor of the Pender's shoe ponies fame, who raced her successfully and afterwards used her as a brood mare, being the dam of Westwind and Northwind, two good race horses of the time.

Black Jack was also in the same race, was owned by C. H. Eater, a Calais undertaker, and was the property of our present mayor, H. R. McLellan and for a long time was prominent in brushes on the Marsh road. Rocket was owned by Robert Shaughnessy, at present train customs officer, between St. John and Vancouver.

The Next Tomah.
The class for three-year-olds was won by Tomah, bred near St. Stephen, a son of Edgardo, Tomah developed into one of the greatest trotters in the world, taking a record of 2:10 in fact for years, Edgardo and Tomah were the fastest sire and son in the world. After Tomah got through racing he was purchased by George Hall, of the Adams House in Boston, who for years drove him double and single, and at that time to be one of the fastest, if not the fastest teams in New England. Tomah spent his declining days where he was born, near St. Stephen.

Molly, which was third to Tomah, was owned by Thomas Driscoll, who is still a citizen of St. John. Molly was an unusually attractive chestnut mare, with a white face and four white feet, and went to the pace. She was sired by Conn's Harry Wilkes and was out of a pacing mare called Maud Gibson. Conn's Harry Wilkes was a big bay stallion imported by the New Brunswick government for breeding purposes. Molly was sold by Mr. Driscoll to the late W. G. Calhoun of Amherst, N. S.

In the 24th class Jubilee and Rocket won first and second places respectively. Rose L. the fourth horse in the race was owned by Hugh Love of St. Stephen and was by Olympian and out of a pacing mare called Maud Gibson.
