football players, the school boys, our sprinters, the Tuxis Boys, all demand a proper field easily reached.

For years clubs and organizations have been preoccupied with kinds of theories on this subject, without any practice. I might say our policy in building is to build according to our members' plans. These plans provide a space for any athletic effort from a quarter mile track to a jumping pit.

But what we want, and I am sure my league will back me up, is the combined support of every interested organization, not only of the North End but of the whole city. Come in and help and inside of three years you will have an athletic field that St. John can be proud of. Here is the opportunity, what is your answer?

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space.

I remain, yours in hope,
THOMAS A. ARMOUR.

"LET DEMPSEY GET THE
MONEY, WE'LL TAKE
THE TITLE," SAYS KANE

Shelby, Mont., June 24.—Tom Gibbons is not worrying over the financial end of his bout with Dempsey here next week. The fact that he may not get much in the way of money fails to annoy him. His manager, Eddie Kane, has summed up the feeling in Gibbons' camp by saying: "We are glad Dempsey will get what is coming to him financially, for he certainly is going to get what is coming to him physically. Let Dempsey get the money, we'll take the title."

Quincy staged a real comeback last evening when they shutout St. Peter's 8 to 0 in the Two-I League fixture played on St. Peter's diamond. The game was one of the most keenly contested this season and was replete with exciting plays. In the fourth inning Quincy got their first run on an error and from that on until the ninth it was a case of one trying to increase their lead and the other vainly endeavoring to get back the run and stave off defeat. In the first of the ninth darkness started to settle down and there was a great rush on the part of St. Peter's to hurry through the inning and get their last chance to win. The hurrying proved disastrous, however, and a high fly which went to center was not seen in time by the fielders and taking a bounce struck the club house and caromed off into the section between it and the left field bleachers going for a home run.
That ended the scoring as the next two men were quickly turned back, but the damage had been done. St.
Peter's vainly tried to stage a rally but failed. St. Peter's had their chance to put the game on ice in the eighth when with two on and none out they failed to score. Nolan, the new southpaw for Quincy, pitched a great game holding the Saints to two hits. The
