New York, May 3.—An audience of more than a thousand left a theatre in Union square here on Sunday without disorder when fire broke out in the balcony. While the orchestra played the "Star Spangled Banner", the crowd, urged by the management to preserve order, walked into the street. The blaze was extinguished with small damage.

BESIDES THE ACTUAL TIME

Washington, May 4.—A new German clock that records all kinds of things besides time, aroused the interest of Consul Reed at Prague so that he wrote the Commerce Department all about it. He saw it at a fair and said it would tell the second of the minute minute of the hour, hour of the day, day of the week, week of the year, month of the year, season of the year; position of the stars and the exact position of the earth in its orbit, all for the trifling cost of 5000 Austrian crowns, or about $50 in real money.

The consul said he understood an improved model would be put out showing conditions of light and darkness around the earth, and other handy information.

Customs and inland revenue appointments have been gazetted as follows: James Preston Greig, O. A. S., customs examining officer, port of St. John; Rolfe T. Ganong, O. A. S., excise man bookkeeper, St. John.

Gleaming Beauty added to adorable pattern

THE refreshingly new, exclusive patterns and the rich, gleaming lustre of "Holmes & Edwards" silverware add an air of distinction and brilliance—make any table-setting more sumptuous and inviting.

Old-time craftsmanlike hand-burnishing gives "Holmes & Edwards" a sparkle—a mirror-like sheen—that flashes richly beneath the glowing lights. No other silverplate gleams so brightly. And apart from this rich lustre, hand-burnishing gives to "Holmes & Edwards" silverplate extra wearing quality.

Moreover, this beautiful product of the silversmith's art is protected at the wear points.

In "Holmes & Edwards" SILVER INLAID blocks of solid silver are sunk and fused in before plating on the back of the pieces most often used—just where friction causes wear.

In "Holmes & Edwards" SUPER-PLATE these points are protected by an extra heavy deposit of pure silver.

To those seeking gifts for the June Bride or tokens for wedding anniversaries, no more welcome, lasting or fascinating choice could be desired than a selection of exclusive "Holmes & Edwards" pieces—the highest quality silverware made.
