Three Homers for Ruth.

New York, June 21—The ability of the Cincinnati Nationals and the Cleve-land Americans to maintain a winning pace against the eastern teams in the Present inter-sectional series has enabled them to retain the leadership of their leagues. Each disposed of its chief east-ent rival, the Brooklyn Nationals and New York Americans, respectively, last week. Rain interfered with the schedule of both league leaders.

The Brooklyn National pitchers have been unable to check the western visit-ors, losing series to Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago St. Louis' spectacular climb, started in the west, met with a surprising interruption in Philadelphia, where the Quakers won three out of four. Both Chicago and Pittsburg have recovered from their losing streaks.
