DOROTHY DALTON

In the Paramount-Artcraft Special

"The Market of Souls"

WITH MISS DALTON IN A DUAL ROLE

Her soul in the balance! Around her, the flash and lure of "life." Deep in her breast, the voice of her better self—"Beware!" Which call did she heed?

Your heart will go out to Dorothy Dalton in the tense, trying moments of this great story.

Your eyes will glow in fascination at the sensational picture of a New Year's revel in a New York palace of joy.

BASKETBALL.

Big Crowd for League Games.

There was a record attendance for a basketball game at the Y. M. C. I. gymnasium on Saturday evening to witness three games in the City League. It was estimated that there were about 600 present.

The first game of the evening was between the girl teams of the Y. M. C. I. and the Germain Street Baptist church. The former won by a score of 8 to 2. H. Nixon was the referee. The line-up was as follows: Germain Street Baptist—Miss Marshall, centre; Miss Brown and Miss Lewis, defence; Miss McCauley and Miss Stewart, forwards; Y. M. C. I.—Miss Floyd, centre; Miss Z. Higgins and Miss Nugent, defence; Miss Callaghan and Miss Flood, forwards; Miss Ready, spare.

The senior game between the Y. M. C. A. Seniors and Y. M. C. A. Trojans was the fastest of the evening and afforded the spectators an opportunity to see some fast play between two stellar teams. The game was rough in patches. The final score was 25 to 22 in favor of the Y. M. C. A. Seniors. At half time the score stood 11 to 10. H. A. Morton refereed. The line-up was as follows: Seniors—Willet and Margrett, forwards; Smith, centre; Nixon and Marshall, defence; Trojans—Shaw and Urquhart, forwards; Malcolm, centre; Kerr and Cross, defence; MacGowan, spare.

In the intermediate section of the league, St. David's church and the Germain Street Baptist church teams clashed, the former winning by a score of 18 to 11. Ray Pendleton refereed. The line-up: St. David's—Hermann and Porter, forwards; MacGowan, centre; Stirling and Christopher, defence; Germain Street Baptist—Fritz and Field, forwards; Davidson, centre; Dalton and Belding, defence.

BASEBALL.

Rochester Club Sold.

Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 6.—G. T. Chapin, president of the Rochester International League club last night announced the sale of the club to G. T. Stallings and Walter E. Haggood, former manager and present business manager, respectively of the Boston Braves. Stallings and Haggood declared that they are alone in the purchase of the property. Stallings will manage the club and Haggood, who is to sever his connection with the Boston club, will be business manager.

Hummel Resigns.

Reading, Pa., Dec. 6.—"Silent" John Hummel has resigned as manager of the Reading International League baseball club. He announced he had no definite plans for next season.
