George F. Gregory Bridges, son of Dr. H. V. Bridges, principal of the Normal School, Fredericton, has been chosen as Rhodes scholar from New Brunswick for this year. He is an undergraduate of the U. N. B. and a returned soldier. The other competitor for the honor was I. W. Sears of York county.

Graduation exercises were conducted on Saturday night in the St. John Infirmary when Miss Louise Graham and Miss Agnes Duffy received their diplomas. The presentation was made by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, who also pronounced benediction and addressed the two graduating nurses, wishing them much success.

HAVE BOYS AS GUESTS.
Eighty small members of the Boys' Club were joyously entertained on Saturday evening at the Y. M. C. A. when a special treat was given for them. The Ladies' Auxiliary assisted and saw to it that every lad was well supplied with good things to eat. The boys had a fine time in the gymnasium and in the swimming tank, under direction of T. S. Armour, physical director, and were then entertained to "movies" by Bliss Robertson, after which came supper. Capt. A. J. Mulcahy, Mrs. W. C. Good, and A. M. Belding, members of the club executive, accompanied the boys, who were in charge of their leader, Harry Scott. The members of the Y. M. C. A. Ladies' Auxiliary who served the refreshments were Mrs. H. Colby Smith, Mrs. P. A. Dykeman, Mrs. T. H. Somerville, Mrs. C. Christie and Mrs. J. F. Tilton.

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL

Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others.

Christopher, Ill.—"For four years I suffered from irregularities, weakness, nervousness, and was in a run down condition. Two of our best doctors failed to do me any good. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, I tried it and was cured. I am no longer nervous, an irregular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound cures any female trouble."—Mrs. ALICE HELLES, Christopher, Ill.

Nervousness is often a symptom of weakness or some functional derangement, which may be overcome by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as thousands of women have found by experience.

If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions in regard to your ailment. The result of its long experience is at your service.

HUN EMIGRANTS LEAVE FOR BRAZIL

Montreal, Jan. 5.—A cable to the Montreal Gazette from The Hague says: The first 217 German emigrants to leave Europe since before the war sailed from Rotterdam on Saturday morning for Brazil. They were most unlike the pre-war emigrants. They mostly had the appearance of Bavarian farmers and skilled workmen. Three thousand more are expected soon, also bound for Brazil, and it is expected that Rotterdam will become the great emigration port of the future. More than 100 Germans, who were not allowed to pass the frontier, are camping in a train at Bentheim, awaiting a laissez-passer from the Dutch minister of justice.
