When the fowl arrived he explained when the fowl arrived he explained to her, by way of making conversation, the mystic properties of the wishbone. "You see," he said, "I take one end and you take hold here. Then we must both make a wish and pull, and when it breaks the one who has the bigger part of it will have his or her wish granted."

"But I don't know what to wish for!" she protested.

"Oh, you can think of something," he "No, I can't," she replied. "I can't think of anything I want very much." "Well, I'll wish for you!" he exclaimed, "Will you really?" she asked.
