THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, JULY 23, 1919

ST. JOHN'S GREATEST MERCANTILE EVENT

Only Three Days More, Closing Saturday at One O'clock.

Saturday will be the last day of St. John's greatest mercantile event, which is Oak Hall's Annual Mid-Summer Sale, but there are quite a few shopping hours between now and Saturday noon, so that there is ample time for everybody to take full advantage of this great opportunity.

And no doubt thousands of shoppers will find their way to this event when they realize that everything in Oak Hall is offered at a substantial reduction, at new merchandise is brought forward every day, and that the Oak Hall guarantee stands back of every piece of merchandise sold. This guarantee is not an empty phrase but is taken seriously by Oak Hall and is interpreted to mean absolute satisfaction to every customer in every transaction.

Furthermore, the Oak Hall motto of large volume at minimum profit assures everyone of the very lowest possible price in keeping with the quality offered. So that those who take advantage of this sale are certain to obtain merchandise of a guaranteed quality at the very rock bottom price, and no doubt, there is not a person in St. John who will willingly let such an opportunity slip by, but Saturday is drawing near, so it behooves everyone to act quickly.

COAL SHIPMENTS.
Hartland Observer.—An entirely new branch of the farming industry has opened up in the shipment of live calves. A buyer from the States was here last week, as well as local buyers and offered the farmers from $5 for "hubs" a few days old to $25 for good veals. From Hartland station three carloads were shipped to Boston last week. It is said

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoo or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary unsifted coconut oil (which is pure and wholesome), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

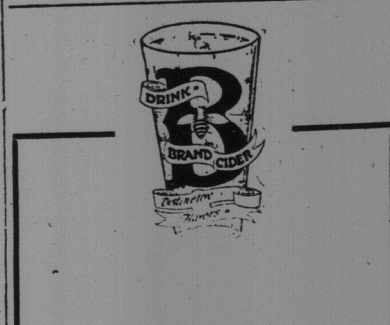

You can get unsifted coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.
