OTHER LOCAL CASUALTIES

Capt. J. F. Soucie, Lieut. L. R. Whitaker and Lieut. C. A. Noble are Among the Wounded Reported Today

A telegram to Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford, 218 Main street, Fairville, yesterday brought the sad news that their son Leo had been killed in action on September 27 in the great combat then going on. He was only seventeen years old when he enlisted with the 55th battalion. Arriving across the ocean he became a member of the 18th. He had been through many battles, doing his part well, and was wounded on the high on August 15, 1917. After some months in hospital he had returned to the front line.

He was a popular young man whose friends will deeply regret his death. A brother, Alfred, has been in the war since the very start of Canada's participation, as he went across with the first contingent. A letter received from Alfred a few days ago stated that he had gone to Leo's battalion to see him, but was told he was not there. The young soldier leaves his parents, his brother overseas, a brother Frank, in St. John, and five sisters—Mrs. William McInnis, of Charlottetown, Mrs. Vincent McGrath of Wall street, and Joe, and three at home, Misses Katie, Annie and Tena. All will have general sympathy in their great loss.

Capt. Jos. F. Soucie.

The news that Captain Joseph F. Soucie has been wounded has been received by Brock & Peterson, with whom he was engaged as a traveler before going overseas. The word came from his former home in St. Leonard's where his mother resides. Captain Soucie joined a Quebec battalion two or three years ago and was transferred to a famous French-Canadian unit at the front.

Wounded Not Serious.

The many friends of Gunner Harold E. Fowler will be pleased to hear that his wound was not serious. His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Fowler, received a letter from the chaplain of the clearing hospital to which he was taken, writing the day after he was wounded and stating that Gunner Fowler was in good spirits and expected to be removed to the base hospital in England in a short time.

Pte. Wm. Ewart.
Mrs. John Ingalls of Fairville, received word yesterday that her son, William Ewart, had made the supreme sacrifice at the front. Many friends of the family in Fairville and Milford had only a hazy recollection of Private Ewart as he had spent the last twenty-four years in Boston living with his aunt, Mrs. Wm. Ewart. A year ago, last August, however, he came back here, feeling it to be his duty to enlist and to join the colors with a Canadian regiment. He signed with a Kiltie battalion and crossed with a French ship. The official notification of his death stated that he was killed on September 27.

Much comment was caused locally when it became known a year ago that Mr. Ewart had come from the states to join the soldiers. Never was there a case of feeling the real call more pronounced and now he has given his life for the principles that made him come so far to offer it to his country. He was thirty-nine years of age and leaves besides his mother, two sisters, Miss Margaret Ewart at home and Mrs. Samuel T. Cougle, of Main street, Fairville, and one brother John, living in Milford.

Lieut. Whitaker
Mrs. F. S. Whitaker of 84 Dorchester street received a telegram this morning notifying her that her nephew, Lieut. Lorne Ray Whitaker, was reported slightly wounded on September 28, but remained on duty. Lieut. Whitaker went overseas about two years ago and remained in England as an instructor for some time. He went to France in April and has since been in active service. Prior to enlisting he was a student at the University of New Brunswick.

Pte. Fred Hamilton
Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hamilton of 60 Harrison street received word this morning that their son, Pte. Fred J. Hamilton, is officially reported missing. Private Hamilton, who was a well known member of the N. B. Kiltie Battalion was sent to France on August 17 with reinforcements for another Canadian unit. He joined the Kilties shortly after that unit was organized by Lieut.-Colonel Guthrie, and during their stay in Fredericton St. John made a host of friends. He was only twenty-four years of age and was well known throughout the city. Prior to enlisting he was employed with A. O. Skinner. Besides his parents he is survived by three brothers, Edward of Montreal and

MET HIS DEATH WHILE ENGAGED IN ATTACK

Official Record Corrects First Report That Private George Perkins of Hampton Was Accidentally Killed

An official report giving the details connected with the death of Private G. Perkins of Hampton, which occurred at the front on August 9, has been received by his father, George R. Perkins of Hampton. It was first reported that the young soldier had been accidentally killed, but as other reports did not seem to agree with this, information was sought through the records office.

The record now to hand reads as follows: "During an attack on August 9, 1918, the platoon to which the above mentioned soldier belonged took cover for a short time in a trench, and as Private Perkins was leaving it to advance again, it is regretted he was shot through the heart and instantly killed."

From this it will be seen that Private Perkins gave his life while gallantly advancing in an attack on the enemy, evidently under heavy fire.

DEATH THIS MORNING OF W.P.M. McLAUGHLIN

Throughout the city the announcement of the death of W. Myles E. McLaughlin will be learned with sincere regret. Mr. McLaughlin had a wide circle of friends who had been grieving to learn of the illness from which he had suffered for a year and a half and which led to his death at an early hour this morning, and in their bereavement the members of his family will have the deep sympathy of the community.

The late Mr. McLaughlin, who was the youngest son of the late D. J. McLaughlin, formerly president of the old Commercial Bank, was born in this city fifty-one years ago and had spent his entire life in the city. For many years he was engaged in business as a real estate broker and also devoted considerable time to the management of the extensive property holdings of the family estate.

He was prominent in musical circles and had to his credit the composition of the music for the well known national song "My Old Canadian Home." He also showed interest in musical matters by bringing to St. John Sousa's, Gillingham and the Black Watch bands, and other big musical attractions.

In religion, Mr. McLaughlin was a Methodist and took a prominent place in Centenary church. Several years ago he was chiefly instrumental in bringing to the city the famous grand old Rev. Dr. R. A. Torrey.

Surviving him are his wife and four small children, two brothers, Robt. McLaughlin, cashier of the customs house, and Harry S., and one sister, Miss Laura, all of this city.

The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, 207, George street.
