Harry Myers of the Robins was the star all around player in the National League last season. He secured records in four different positions, the outfield, first, second and third base.

Fred Snodgrass, the former Giant, has announced his retirement from baseball. Last summer he was with the Vernon club of the Pacific Coast League.

Ban Johnson is so displeased at a news leak which told prematurely the opening dates of the American League that he may cause the schedule to be re-written. There will be some difficulty, however, in finding any one who is worried over Ban Johnson's displeasure over a news leak.
