Apparently the board does not see its way clear at present to establish such a department. There is a movement all over Canada, however, among those interested in the playground movement, to have provision made for the proper training of Canada playground teachers. The sympathy and active support of the employes of the big mamfacturing concerns is being sensitive to the death. The Moncton Times and Transcript would sometimes the dink the work. For example, the employes of the Canadian Car Foundry Comet last week to organize, and were addressed by Mr. John Bradford, and it is imported to the transcript that other industries will also be organized. The company referred to are propared to do their share, and have offered to provide gymnasium, shower baths and reading room for their men, and effer to duplicate any amount which the men may raise for the relief of sickness among their members. The most effective way to build up a city is to co-ordinate all possible forces for helpful work. This is what the people of Amherst are now trying to do.

THE DAIRY INDUSTRY

There is a fine opportunity for the development of the dairying industry in the Maritime Provinces. For some reason toolittle attention has been given to this branch of farming, and the present condition and future prospects of the markets for dairy products are such as to warrant a very decided revival of the industry. Not only does Canada not export butter any longer to the old country, but she is importing large quantities for her own use. One reads with some surprise that for the fiscal year ending next March the imports of butter into Canada, chiefly from New Zealand, will amount to nearly 7,000,000 pounds. In 1903 Canada exported 34,000,000 pounds of butter to the mother country. One of the causes of the changed ons is of course the very rapid ex- May be Checked by Using sion of the home market. The financial statement submitted by Mayor Frink to the city council yesterday will be regarded by the citizens as a satisfactory showing. There is some increase in the assessment but not enough to make a material change in the tax bills. The important point in regard to the financial affairs of the city is that the people are under the old regime. The financial statement of the departments for the past year shows this to be true. If there is to be a somewhat larger assessment for 1913 it with me. I don't get a chance."—Harpis because the requirements of the expand- er's Weekly.

ONE OF HIS OFF YEARS.

"You seem harmless," said the police justice, "but the officer reports you as having no visible means of support. Haven't you any trade or occupation?"

"I have, your honor," responded the man, "I'm an enumerator; I'm out of a job just now, pour honor, but every ten years I help take the national census." THAT WAS ALL.
