LOCAL NEWS

REAL ESTATE RUMOR.

It is reported that the St. John Railway Company is seeking to acquire the property adjoining Seaside Park, known as the Ferns and owned by Joseph Bardeley. The price offered is said to be about $20,000. The report is not confirmed.

A POPULAR PROMOTION.

Samuel Standing, who has been connected with the Dufferin Hotel for some years has been appointed head waiter and his many friends will wish him success and prosperity in the well earned advancement. He succeeds John F. Henselberg who resigned to accept a position in the C. P. R. service.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court this morning, James Lord appeared to answer a charge laid against him by Frank Nagle, that of stealing a row boat and some rope in last November. Lord said that he found the boat in one of the alleys, filled with water and he took it to the place and notified the complainant's mother, but no one came to claim the boat. The magistrate dismissed the case.
Two men, charged with drunkenness, were fined $2 or five days in jail.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Elliott took place this afternoon from her late residence, Union street. Services were conducted by Rev. G. A. Kahring, and interment was in the Church of England burial ground.

The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Rourke was held this morning at 8 o'clock from the residence of Harry G. Smith, Lancaster Heights, to the Church of the Assumption, where requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. J. O'Donovan. Interment was in the Catholic burying ground, Lancaster Heights.

HANDCUFFED HIMSELF.

There is at least one young man in the city who will look askance at handcuffs in the future, even though he has never committed himself so as to suggest their use upon him. In the first place he is an amateur actor and had a small part in the performance in the Opera House last evening. It happened that a pair of handcuffs was lying about and he picked them up, applied them to his wrists and accidentally snapped them. Then his troubles began. He was unable to find the other amateur in the cast who had the key so he sought a way out by going to central station. Still with the handcuffs upon his wrists he continued his search for a friend who had the only key to fit them, and he did considerable wandering before he located him, probably about three quarters of an hour later. The key was applied and the "bracelets" taken off.

D. H. BATES OF ST. STEPHEN DIES AFTER BUT BRIEF ILLNESS

Was Stricken With Apoplexy on Sunday Evening in Houlton

St. Stephen, N. B., March 16.—There is a sad sorrow, especially among the young men, in the sudden death of D. H. Bates, who was stricken with apoplexy on Sunday evening in Houlton. He hurried home, apparently somewhat better, but became unconscious this morning and died at noon. He was the representative of The Milliken Tomlinson Co. of Portland, Me., and was a member of the company. He leaves his wife and three children, Dr. Cassius Bates of Houlton and a younger son at home, and a daughter, Mrs. Marshall McLaughlin. He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity and will probably be buried under the auspices of Sussex Lodge, No. 7.

MISSING WOODSTOCK SCHOOL TEACHER WAS ON WAY TO NEW YORK

Word Comes From Isaac Draper But No Explanation Given

(Special to Times)
Woodstock, N. B., March 16.—Isaac Draper, missing school principal, has been heard from. He wired relative from Boston saying he was en route to New York. No explanation of the cause of his sudden departure is given.
The school board are endeavoring to fill the vacancy in Broadway school and have made some changes of a temporary nature to carry on the work until a new principal is appointed.

HERE IS OUTLOOK FOR ANOTHER INDUSTRY

Property at Eastern End of Sheffield Street May Be Bought

Still another industry is looking for a site in St. John. The owner of a block of property at the eastern end of Sheffield street has been consulted by representatives of outside purchasers who wish to acquire the lots for use as the site of a factory.
The nature of the industry has not been disclosed but, judging from the amount of room they will require, it is apparent that it would be one of some importance and which would give employment to a considerable number of hands.

PUT MORE INSURANCE ON FERRY LUDLOW

Only $25,000 Carried and it Will Be Raised to $40,000

The amount of insurance carried on the city ferry steamers was discussed by the commissioners at their meeting this morning. The harbor commissioner submitted a statement showing that the steamer Ludlow, against which bonds have been issued to the extent of $25,000 is insured for only $25,000. The Governor Carlisle is bonded for $41,000 and insured for $40,000. It was decided to increase the insurance on the Ludlow to $40,000.

NOT INCLINED TO TAKE ACTION

Police Magistrate Matter Discussed in Fredericton

SOME PRESS FOR ACTION

There is Also Talk of a Compromise but Belief is That Government Will Let Judge Armstrong's Report Die

A special despatch from Fredericton says:—

"J. A. Barry, of St. John, was here yesterday and there was some revival of the talk in connection with the investigation in which Magistrate Ritchie of St. John, was the principal figure. It is understood that the report of the commissioner, Judge J. R. Armstrong, was adverse to the magistrate, and it is also understood that the government is very reluctant to take any action that will deprive the magistrate of his employment.

"Those, however, who have been working to this end are still persistent in demanding his dismissal. They have been surprised, nevertheless, to find that the magistrate's friends are very numerous, and that they are not idle on his behalf. The latest phase of the subject savours somewhat of a compromise.

"The salary that goes with the office amounts to $3,000 a year, and it had been suggested that the magistrate should receive $2,000 annually. Mr. Henderson, present police clerk and assistant magistrate, is mentioned here as likely to be appointed in the event of such an arrangement being carried out.

"J. A. Barry's name also has been mentioned as a probable successor to Mr. Henderson. Still it is asserted by those who ought to know that the government is not inclined to take any action on the report."

TO RESUME LOCAL MILITARY ACTIVITIES

Plans For Gunnery and Signalling Schools—The Annual Drill

Activities in militia training, which have been dormant in St. John during the winter months, will be resumed on next Monday when a school of instruction in gunnery will be opened for the officers, non-coms, and men of the 8th N. B. Artillery Regiment. It will be conducted in the Lower Cove armory and probably will be attended by about sixty members of the regiment. A supervising officer and an instructor are expected to arrive in the city at the latter part of the week to conduct the school, which will last about six weeks. It is the expectation that orders will be issued for the regular annual training to be begun immediately following the school of instruction, the sergeant instructor remaining in the city during the training, as was done last year.

A school of instruction in signalling also will be opened in the city in the near future, although the dates have not yet been decided. It is expected that it will be about the latter part of April or early in May, and that the instructing will be done by a member of No. 8 Section, who led all Canada last year as in previous years in signalling honors, even making superior marks to the crack Kingston corps.

This school will last about four weeks. The instructor will probably be A. J. Lindsay, Q. M. S., 1. of No. 8 Section. He delivered an interesting lecture last evening before the members of the signalling unit attached to the 62nd Regiment on "Practical Signalling," which was greatly appreciated by the members. This unit is up to full strength and has done some active signalling work during the winter under Lt. Dawson. Orders are expected for the 62nd Regiment St. John Fusiliers to resume their annual training about April 15.

SAD CASE OF A BOY

Problem of His Case is Being Worked Out

Adjutant Cummings of the Salvation Army might have seen this morning a company with a boy about eight or nine years old, whose clothing and general appearance gave every evidence of neglect. He was a bright, healthy looking boy, who under favorable conditions would no doubt develop into a good citizen. This boy's mother is not in the city. He has been living with his father, whose present home keeper smokes cigarettes, and has sent the boy out to get them for her.

Yesterday the boy was turned out from this so-called home and told to shift for himself. A gentleman took him last night to the Salvation Army home where he was cared for, and this morning Adjutant Cummings took him and went to that portion of the city where he had lived, to make enquiries. He learned from an uncle of the boy, who would be willing to care for the lad, but that he is unable to do so, that the home from which the little fellow had been turned away was really not a fit place for him, and that he would be better off somewhere else.

Adjutant Cummings conferred with the authorities of a private institution, and it is possible the boy may find a home there. If not there seems to be no other course but to send him to the Municipal Home. If there were a Children's Aid Society there would be no difficulty in providing him with a good home where he would have an opportunity to grow up a good citizen.
