Her Bronchitis Yields To Vicks

A "Very Effective Relief," Says
This Toronto Lady.

Mrs. R. K. Bankin, 115 McGill St., Toronto, Ont., says: "Last fall I had a very bad attack of bronchitis. I saw Vicks VapoRub advertised and tried it according to directions. I could not exaggerate about your valuable medicine. It is a most pleasant and effective remedy for any kind of cold. I will always keep it in the house."

Vicks VapoRub comes in salve form, and for head or chest colds, you just apply it over throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. The body heat releases vapors that are inhaled all night long into the throat and lungs—Menthol, Camphor, Thymol, Eucalyptus and Turpentine. Vicks is also absorbed through and stimulates the skin, adding the vapors to relieve congestion. Usually colds go in one night and croup is commonly relieved in 15 minutes.

By invitation of the manufacturers, fifteen thousand families in Canada tried Vicks last winter for cold troubles. The only condition being that they would report results. The above is just one of these enthusiastic reports received.

At all drug stores 50c a jar. For a free test size package, write Vicks Chemical Co., 344 St. Paul St., W., Montreal, P. Q.

Though Vicks is new in Canada, it enjoys a remarkable sale. Over 17 million jars used yearly.

Imperial Feature With Mae Murray Makes Big Hit
With Spectators.

In "Broadway Rose," which opened yesterday at the Imperial theatre, Mae Murray has again added to the dramatic interest of a powerful love story a dazzling production conspicuous for its gorgeous settings and wonderful costumes. Not the least interesting parts of the picture are those episodes where Miss Murray is given opportunity to display her ability as a dancer. There she becomes the idol of Broadway and receives the adulation which is showered on the favorites of the Gay White Way. Success in her career only serves to increase her desire for the love and happiness which every woman craves. And so when Hugh Thompson urges her to marry him she consents in spite of the fact that she knows that his father will disinherit him for marrying a dancer.
The Thompsons were of the Fifth avenue elite and had an aristocratic young debutante already picked out for their son. So when they heard the news through a detective they became exceedingly busy with son Hugh. The result added considerably to Rosalie's knowledge of human nature but nothing at all to her happiness. However, that young lady soon learned that happiness is often just around the corner, and in the end things turn out to suit her and also the motion picture fans who see "Broadway Rose."

As Rosalie Lawrence, Miss Murray has a role that gives her an opportunity for the best acting she has ever done.
Incidentally, of course, she displays an array of dazzling costumes that stagger the average man and bring gasps of delight from the women of the audience.

In addition to the Mae Murray feature at the Imperial today and Wednesday there will be the final story of the famous ringdier series known as "The Leather Pushers"—H. C. Wit-ter's stirring tales of boxing bouts as published in Colliers Weekly. This story was to have been shown last Friday and Saturday but was caught in a traffic jam east due to the blizzard.
