

and Recorder, Thomas M. Reed, erful recuperative power of the misfortune that befell several of past year, in the destruction of ortion of their regalia and other althfulness is apparent in all the is evident throughout the juris-ples, and for the welfare of our er. Its future prospects are bright on the sound principles of truth, htly honor, its progress must ever owth and prosperity of our young p increasing membership of active, nd Masons, its royal banner will f truth and moral excellence." eries and 227 members. New ed at Vancouver and Aberdeen.

Walla), Grand Commander. e Falls), Grand Recorder.

CONSIN.

Milwaukee, October 14, 1890.
Commander.

es there appears one on the death Moore, couched in feeling and he Subordinates and found them eries and 2,258 members.

s authorized to be held in Mil-urisdiction with the other Com-presented his eighth Annual Red it is written in his usual good ed ability. Our Proceedings for