The Miracles of This Terrible Disease

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is a parent of culture and the harvest of blessed hopes.

If I tried I do not believe I could over-estimate the value of my Dyspepsia Cure. It has brought peace and happiness into thousands of homes where all had been afflicted on account of sick and ailing stomachs.

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure relieves stomach distress instantly. Price 25c.

Curious Cases. Many queer customs and usages are prevalent among the Cosacks of the Don.

The Blood Must Be Kept Rich and Pure and the Nerves Strong. Good health is the most precious treasure any man or woman can have.

Something Wrong. An Astorian auctioneer who was reputed to have more education than professional ability was endeavoring to sell some cattle to an audience of farm hands.

One Particular Reason. "My dear" said Mrs. Cawker to her daughter, "when you are at Mrs. Cumso's this afternoon I hope you won't think of repeating that bit of gossip about Mrs. Gilroy."

Safety in Numbers. "Brain-tingle" would be ungenerous and unkind, and I don't think Mrs. Gilroy would like it to do, and besides, I want to tell to Mrs. Cumso myself."

A LIFE SAVER. Baby's Own Tablets Make Children Well and Keep Them Well.

HARD ON THE CANDIDATE. The candidate for Parliament had been making a speech in one of the towns of the district where he was not well known personally.

FOR LOSS OF FEELING. David Burns, of Miramichi, Long Island, has brought an action against a railway for destroying his feelings.

Jim Dumps a little girl possessed. "I des ta't eat!" the child would scream.

The Ready-to-Serve Cereal. A good fairy to all youngsters.

Perfect Food for Children. "What is a perfect summer cereal, and one that is made to keep the children to eat?"

In Peace and War Or, The End of It All

CHAPTER XV. The silence of the Ancient Artists' Guild was in the full flow of its career.

"You insist on having a man who carries a rifle in every scene?" queried the startled playwright.

"But it will appear very sensational and artistic!"

Excessive muscular development is pronounced by an experienced physician to be not only unnecessary, but positively dangerous.

There will be war as soon as winter is over. In completion of his remark he nodded his head sideways.

"Yes," he said, "I can't do without you in this war." "The war has not come yet."

Then he rose and buttoned his thick coat; for, like all great travelers, he wrapped himself heavily in England.

"Good-bye," replied the editor. He would have been profoundly surprised to see that the man who had been so warmly welcomed by him, was now so coldly dismissed.
