ONLY THREE TEAMS LEFT IN 6 DAY RACE

Bill another team has fallen by the wayside in the local six-day roller race at the Queen's Holloway. Campbell and Black dropped out last night. Only three teams are now left in the contest, which will close this evening. Nixon and Alward still retain the premier position, being nine laps ahead of the next team, Gibson and Wilson, their respective positions not having been changed by last night's performance, each having made 16 miles and 5 laps. Whitebonds and Coleman dropped another four laps last night. Great interest has been taken in the contest all through, and will be intensified tonight, when the final struggle will come. Following are the results for last night, and the total distances covered:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Miles, Laps. Nixon and Alward: 16 5 83. Gibson and Wilson: 16 5 82. Whitebonds and Cole: 16 1 81.

Under the new university act the powers bestowed upon Dr. Falconer in connection with the university, are absolute.

CONSCIOUS IN COFFIN, OLD MAN MAKES NOISE
Agonized Expression on His Face Showed He Realized Being Buried Alive.

PARIS, April 27.—An old farmer, named Chaudon, was buried alive lately at the village of Sarlet, in the Landes. He fell ill a fortnight ago, and afterward lapsed into a state of coma, and agonized expression on his face showed that he had regained consciousness after he was placed in the coffin. The bystanders heard raps and moans coming from within. They ran to toll the Mayor, and when he arrived, half an hour later, the lid of the coffin was wrenched open. The man was dead, but the changed and agonized expression on his face showed that he had regained consciousness after he was placed in the coffin. A similar incident occurred recently at Lez, in Savoy. Jean Godard, a man of 76, fell into a swoon, and remained unconscious so long that he was believed to be dead. His neighbors wrapped him in a shroud, and placed lighted candles at the foot and head of the bed, while the women recited prayers for his soul. Suddenly the man sat up and looked around him in astonishment. The women screamed and fled from the cottage, thinking they had seen a ghost. Ultimately some peasants were found bold enough to venture into the cottage, where they soon assured themselves that the old man was really living.

POST OFFICE IN TREE CAUSE OF DIVORCE

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 26.—The fact that Mrs. Myrtle Wilkinson, of Ross township used a hollow pine tree as a postoffice, resulted in her husband, Ernest A. Wilkinson, obtaining a divorce today. After several years of happy married life, he discovered one day that she was placing letters in a pine tree on a farm and that they were addressed to a young man on a neighboring farm. When he ascertained that she was doing this, he left the house, and has never returned to it. The divorce proceedings followed.

BRITISH COLUMBIA WILL NOT ENFORCE LORD'S DAY ACT

VICTORIA, B. C., April 25.—As the provincial house closed yesterday, the attorney-general advised that the province would not give to no prosecutions under the Lord's Day Act. The statement caused general surprise. It had been anticipated that a measure amending the observance act would have been passed; failing that, it had been thought assent would have been given to all prosecutions. Considerable dissatisfaction has been caused by the announcement.

YOUTH SHEDS HIS SKIN THREE TIMES, AND DIES

Doctors Fail to Save Life of Boy Suffering from "Dermatitis Exfoliativa"

WORCESTER, Mass., April 24.—Norry J. Myott, 16 years old, who was at the city hospital for treatment for dermatitis exfoliativa, an usual and singular disease which is a shedding of the skin, died today. Myott, when admitted to the hospital six weeks ago, was shedding his epidermis. This was the third time in his short life that this phenomenon had been noted. Authorities here say it is never present in this country. Myott never knew how dermatitis exfoliativa affected him. He came from Kittingly, Conn., and when admitted to the hospital it was thought he was ill with scarlet fever. During the absence of the secretary of the Ladies' Association of the St. John Golf Club, the members are requested to pay their dues to Miss Warner, Chapman Place who will act as secretary.

PARIS, April 27.—The statue of Napoleon the Great, shown here, is to be unveiled in the besting of May on the island of Elba, the empire left him by the powers after his abdication at Fontainebleau. The face of the statue, "the Emperor of Elba" is modelled from Napoleon's death mask. It will be erected on the spot where he lived until his return to France.

ROYAL PROSECUTORS BEATEN
Fraulein Milewska Acquitted of Stealing Jewels from the Kaiser's Aunt

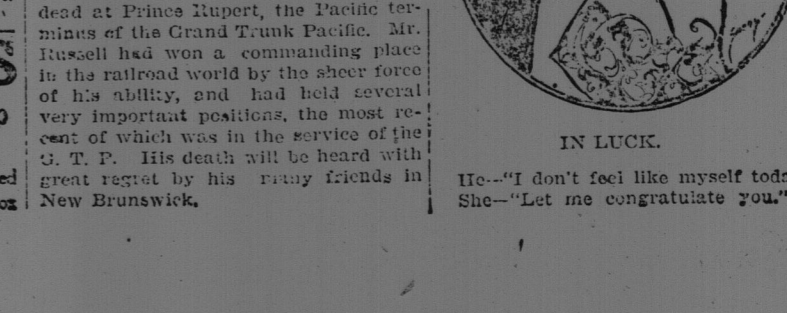

BERLIN, April 25.—A case which has been a cause celebre, affecting royal circles for more than six years, ended today in the acquittal of Fraulein Milewska, formerly a lady in waiting to the late Princess Amalie of Schleswig-Holstein, aunt of the Emperor, who was charged with stealing the Princess's jewels.

The affair maintained its more or less absorbing interest owing to its having involved statements by the Kaiser and other members of the royal family in reference to Fraulein Milewska's alleged malfeasance over the Princess Amalie. The accused always protested that she was a victim of trumped up evidence manufactured by her royal prosecutors. She convinced the jury that the jewels were her own property. Moreover, she brought evidence to show that the Princess Amalie had borrowed money from her at various times. Fraulein Milewska's vindication is regarded as damaging the personal prestige of Duke Ernest August, brother of the Emperor, who was conspicuously active in the prosecution.

WIFE HELD HER TONGUE; HUSBAND SAYS CRUELTY

MILWAUKEE, April 25.—Mrs. Lillian Hallett, "the silent one," still has a husband. Because she refused to answer him, not even showing a change of demeanor when he tried to quarrel with her, Albert Hallett sued her for divorce. It was refused by the court. Hallett asserted that there were times when she nagged him, but when he talked at all he had to do it all. The court decided that such reticence was not cruel and inhuman treatment, and declined to writ which the husband asked for.

E. G. RUSSELL. E. G. Russell a native of St. George, who a few years ago was general manager of the I. C. R., dropped dead at Prince Rupert, the Pacific terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific. Mr. Russell had won a commanding place in the railroad world by the sheer force of his ability, and had held several very important positions, the most recent of which was in the service of the I. C. R. His death will be heard with great regret by his many friends in New Brunswick.

Under the new university act the powers bestowed upon Dr. Falconer in connection with the university, are absolute.

Every Buttonhole of
3737 Shirt
Any 3737 Shirt fits better than any ordinary shirt. One reason is the accurate, careful spacing of the buttonholes. Unless they meet each other perfectly—if one were even a little higher or lower than the mate—the button would pucker—pull—bind. Buttonholes on 3737 shirts are placed right, are made right, and stay right, even after many trips to the washboard. Get the shirt you like, in any fabric, or pattern, and get more money's worth when you buy 3737. Demand the Brand (No red scribbles below the neck).
